

CHILD SUPPORT EVADER JORGE HERNANDEZ

by Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott

ATTORNEY GENERAL GREG ABBOTT NEEDS

your help locating Child Support Evader Jorge Hernandez, one of the Most Wanted Child Support Evaders in Texas.

Hernandez, who was added to the Child Support Evader's list in March 2010, owes $59,154 for the care of five children living in El Paso.

In February 1999, Hernandez was ordered to pay $372 a month in child support. Hernandez, who had the ability to make his payments, did not follow the judge's order to support his children financially.

By 2008, he owed more than $43,000 in unpaid child support. An arrest warrant was issued after Hernandez failed to appear at a court hearing to compel compliance with his child support order.

Jorge Hernandez has not made a single child support payment in more than six years. By refusing to provide the financial resources his children need, Hernandez has turned his back on them and violated the law. A combination of missed payments and interest that accrues on unpaid child support adds up to more than $59,000 in unpaid child support Hernandez now owes.

Investigators from the Attorney General's office have searched the state for Hernandez, who may be living in El Paso. He may be working for cash to avoid garnishment of wages to pay child support. Contact the Attorney General's Office at (866) EVADERS (382-3377) to report information that may lead to the arrest of Jorge Hernandez.

Texas law requires the Office of the Attorney General to publicly identify certain parents who are delinquent in the payment of child support. The Child Support Evaders are selected because they have the ability to take responsibility for their children but refuse to do so. Incarceration is the only option for parents who repeatedly ignore court orders to pay child support. The Attorney General's Office helps parents who lack the ability to pay child support by referring them to job training and employment services.
