OFFICE of the ATTORNEY GENERAL
GREG ABBOTT

December 31, 2002

Mr. James L. Hall
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004
Huntsville, Texas 77342

OR2002-7485

Dear Mr. Hall:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 174405.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a written request for, among other things, interview questions and responses of those interviewed for job posting 022003HT.[1] You contend that this requested information is excepted from required disclosure pursuant to section 552.122(b) of the Government Code.[2] We have also considered the comments submitted by the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (providing that interested party may make comments stating why information should or should not be released).

Section 552.122(b) of the Government Code protects from public disclosure a "test item developed by a . . . governmental body." Additionally, when answers to test questions might reveal the questions themselves, the answers may be withheld under section 552.122(b). See Open Records Decision No. 626 at 8 (1994). Section 552.122(b) is applicable only where the test item constitutes a "standard means by which an individual's or group's knowledge

[1]We assume the department has released the other requested information. If it has not, it must do so at this time. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301, .302; see also Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000) (noting that if governmental body concludes that no exceptions apply to requested information, it must release information as soon as possible under circumstances).

[2]Because you inform us that "Question 9 was not asked during the interview," we understand you to represent that information pertaining to that question is not responsive to the request. Accordingly, we do not address whether information pertaining to that question is subject to required public disclosure.

or ability in a particular area is evaluated." This exception does not apply to evaluations of an employee's overall job performance or suitability. See id. at 6. Whether information falls within the section 552.122(b) exception must be determined on a case-by-case basis. See id.

After reviewing the submitted materials, we conclude that only questions 11, 12, 14, 15, and 16, as well as a portion of question 8, which we have marked, constitute standard means by which an individual's or group's knowledge or ability in a particular area is evaluated. Because the applicants' answers and the preferred answers to those questions may reveal the substance of the questions, we conclude that the department may withhold those questions and the corresponding applicants' and preferred answers to those questions pursuant to section 552.122(b). The remaining submitted information must be released to the requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

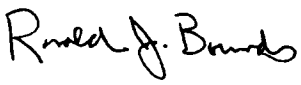
If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,



Ronald J. Bounds
