

pre-test

DIRECTIONS: Mark True or False

- _____ 1. There is no difference between a legal father and a biological father.
- _____ 2. A father can only be the legal father to children born in a marriage.
- _____ 3. One can determine who the father is by whom the child looks like.
- _____ 4. The hospital where a child is born determines the legal father's identity.
- _____ 5. If a teenaged father is not married, he cannot be made to pay child support.
- _____ 6. If a child receives Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), a father will not be required to pay child support.
- _____ 7. Mothers cannot be required to pay child support.
- _____ 8. A genetic (DNA) test is over 99 percent accurate.
- _____ 9. Jealousy is a good sign in a relationship; it means that your boyfriend/ girlfriend really cares about you.
- _____ 10. One month of child care for an infant costs more than one month of food for a family of three.