"UNDER TEXAS PROPERTY TAX CODE SECTION 11.13
YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A HOMESTEAD
EXEMPTION LOWERING YOUR ANNUAL PROPERTY TAX LIABILITY."

IT APPEARS YOU ARE OVERPAYING YOUR PROPERTY TAXES:

The property located at 1005 New York St has a current assessed value of $24,700.00 and Government Records do not reflect a reduction in this assessment for the HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION you may qualify to receive. If you own and live at the above residence and properly apply for a Homestead Exemption, you will save money by paying less property tax. The Homestead Exemption applied to your residence, would allow you to subtract a minimum of $15,000 from your current assessed value of $24,700.00 when you file a one-time homestead exemption. You will receive hundreds to thousands of dollars in tax savings each year and the taxable assessed value on your property cannot be raised more than 10% per year. In addition to obtaining THIS SAVINGS for the 2004 tax year and future years, you may ALSO be entitled to a tax refund from the property taxes you paid in 2003, if you lived in your home as of January 1, 2003. County Tax Reduction alerts taxpayers to possible tax savings they are entitled to receive and will assist you in applying for a Homestead Exemption and a possible refund from the property taxes you paid in 2003. Any legal right this year, to receive a refund of taxes overpaid in the prior year will be lost if a filing is not made by the statutory deadline. Send the attached form and a check for a one-time processing fee of $55.00 made payable to COUNTY TAX REDUCTION, by February 28, 2004. Our office will send the complete application ready for your signature and submission to the appropriate tax agency. County Tax Reduction is not a government agency or affiliated in any way with the government. For over 7 years County Tax Reduction has saved thousands of Texas homeowners property taxes they would have overpaid and lost. If you have received a letter previously or filed for a Homestead Exemption, please disregard this notice. Please note! If you have filed a "Homestead Designation" with Austin, it is a different filing and provides no tax savings. You must file a separate "Homestead Exemption Application" to save on your taxes, which we will provide. IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE THIS EXEMPTION AND TAX SAVINGS AFTER FILING, YOUR PROCESSING FEE OF $55.00 WILL BE REFUNDED.
