Wells Fargo Online Important Notice February 16, 2006

Dear Online Customer,

As part of our security measures, we regularly screen activity in the Wells Fargo Online Banking system. We recently noticed the following issue on your account. A recent review of your account determined that we require some additional information from you in order to provide you with secure service. ID Number: IG84564. For your protection, we have limited access to your account until additional security measures can be completed. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. Please log in to Wells Fargo Online Banking system to restore your account access as soon as possible.

You must click the link below and log in Wells Fargo Online Banking page to complete the verification process.

In accordance with Wells Fargo Bank User Agreement, your account access will remain limited until the issue has been resolved. Unfortunately, if access to your account remains limited for an extended period of time, it may result in further limitations or eventual account closure. We encourage you to log in to your Wells Fargo Bank account as soon as possible to help avoid this. To review your account and some or all of the information that Wells Fargo used to make its decision to limit your account access, please visit the Resolution Center. If after reviewing your account information, you seek further clarification regarding your account access, please contact Wells Fargo by visiting the Help Center at <https://www.wellsfargo.com/help/index.jhtml> and clicking "Contact Us". We thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please understand that this is a measure intended to help protect you and your account.

Sincerely,

Wells Fargo Online
