

AIG Insurers do not admit liability under the antitrust laws or applicable insurance laws by agreeing to this Judgment. Nonetheless, to avoid the uncertainty and expense of protracted litigation, AIG agrees to enter into this Judgment.

IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

I. PARTIES

1. AIG is a Delaware corporation headquartered in New York, New York. The AIG Insurers have offices situated and issuing insurance policies in the United States. Certain of the AIG Insurers hold Certificates of Authority to conduct the business of insurance, or are otherwise authorized to issue insurance policies, in the State of Texas.

2. The Attorney General is the chief legal officer of the State of Texas. The Attorney General is authorized to bring this action for alleged violations of state antitrust laws as well as state laws concerning fraud, misrepresentation or similar conduct.

II. JURISDICTION

3. The Court finds that it has subject matter jurisdiction. AIG has consented to the personal jurisdiction of the Court for the sole purpose of responding to a Civil Investigative Demand (“CID”) relating to the Attorney General’s investigation of the AIG Insurers that conduct the business of insurance in this State and for entry of this Judgment that resolves the Attorney General’s investigation. The Court finds that the Attorney General’s Original Petition states a claim upon which relief may be granted.
