Dear Mr. Shaunessy:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code (former article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S.).¹ Your request was assigned ID# 22459.

The City of Leander (the "city") received an open records request for certain records relating to the city's annexation of an area. The city contends the information may be withheld from the public pursuant to the Open Records Act, sections 552.103(a), 552.107, and 552.111 of the Government Code (former sections 3(a)(3), 3(a)(7), and 3(a)(11), article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S). The city submitted the responsive documents for our review.

To secure the protection of section 552.103(a), a governmental body must demonstrate that the requested information "relates" to a pending or reasonably anticipated judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding. Open Records Decision No. 551 (1990). In this instance, you have made the requisite showing that the requested information relates to reasonably anticipated litigation for purposes of section 552.103(a). The requested records may therefore be withheld.²

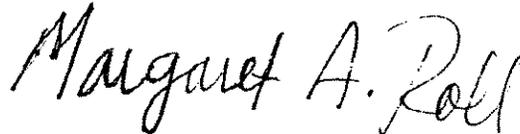

¹We note that the Seventy-third Legislature repealed article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S. Acts 1993, 73d Leg., ch. 268, § 46. The Open Records Act is now codified in the Government Code at chapter 552. Id. § 1. The codification of the Open Records Act in the Government Code is a nonsubstantive revision. Id. § 47.

²Since section 552.103 resolves your request, we need not address your arguments under sections 552.107 and 552.111.

In reaching this conclusion, however, we assume that the opposing party to the anticipated litigation has not previously had access to the records at issue; absent special circumstances, once information has been obtained by all parties to the litigation, e.g., through discovery or otherwise, no section 552.103(a) interest exists with respect to that information. Open Records Decision Nos. 349, 320 (1982). If the opposing parties in the anticipated litigation have seen or had access to any of the information in these records, there would be no justification for now withholding that information from the requestor pursuant to section 552.103(a). We also note that the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends once the litigation or threat of litigation has been concluded. Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).³

Because case law and prior published open records decisions resolve your request, we are resolving this matter with this informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Margaret A. Roll
Assistant Attorney General
