Mr. Scott A. Durfee
General Counsel
Office of the District Attorney
Harris County

OR96-1286

Dear Mr. Durfee:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 35036.

The Harris County District Attorney (the "district attorney") received a request for the district attorney's files in: (1) cause number 369,879, styled State v. Milton Taylor; (2) cause number 388,391, styled State v. Bernard Young; (3) cause number 430,172, styled State v. Bernard Young; (4) cause number 231,423, styled State v. Milton Taylor; and (5) cause number 395,661, styled State v. Arlington Mark. You state that the district attorney will release items previously filed with the clerk of the criminal trial court. You claim that the remainder of the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, 552.107, and 552.108 of the Government Code. You have submitted samples of the responsive documents. We have considered the exceptions you claimed and have reviewed the documents at issue.

Section 552.108 excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime," and "[a]n internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution." Gov't Code § 552.108; see Holmes v. Morales, 39 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 781, 1996 WL 325601 (June 14, 1996). We note, however, that information normally found on the front page of an offense report is generally considered public.¹ Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976); Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976).

¹The content of the information determines whether it must be released in compliance with Houston Chronicle, not its literal location on the first page of an offense report. Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) contains a summary of the types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle.

We conclude that, except for front page offense report information, section 552.108 of the Government Code exempts the requested records from required public disclosure.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Stacy E. Sallee
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
