Dear Mr. Ybarra:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID#28571.

The Office of the Attorney General has received a request for records relating to a specific investigation. You contend that sections 552.101, 552.107, 552.108, and 552.111 of the Government Code except the records from required public disclosure.

Section 552.108 excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime." Gov't Code § 552.108; see Holmes v. Morales, 924 S.W.2d 920 (Tex. 1996). Because the requested records deal with the investigation of crime, we conclude that you may withhold the requested records under section 552.108 of the Government Code.¹

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Loretta R. DeHay
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

¹Because we conclude that you may withhold the requested records under section 552.108, we do not address your remaining arguments for withholding the records.
