Ms. Jo Ann Wright
Deputy General Counsel
Texas Department of Transportation

Dear Ms. Wright:

Your predecessor asked whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 25036.

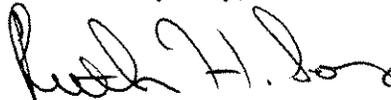

The Texas Department of Transportation (the "department") received a request for concern records related to an automobile accident that occurred on November 19, 1992 on "State Highway 24, U.S. 50 2/10 north of FM 499." You assert that the department has a reasonable expectation of being sued and, therefore, you seek to withhold the information pursuant to section 552.103(a) of the Government Code. To show the applicability of section 552.103(a), a governmental entity must show that (1) litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.-Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 (1990) at 4.

In determining whether litigation is reasonably anticipated, this office must make a case-by-case determination based on the information provided to this office. Open Records Decision No. 452 (1986) at 4. A governmental body must provide concrete evidence that litigation is realistically contemplated. Open Records Decision No. 518 (1989) at 5. We conclude that you have not established that litigation is reasonably anticipated in this matter. Although you have provided to this office a notice of claim filed with the department, we note that the incident giving rise to the notice occurred more than two years ago. You have provided no information to this office that would indicate that a lawsuit has been filed in this matter. See Open Records Decision No. 638 (1996) (governmental body must provide to this office updates concerning the litigation in a timely matter). In making the determination that litigation is not reasonably anticipated, we assume that the general two year statute of limitation applies and has not been tolled. See Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code §§ 16.001 (legal disability tolls running of limitations period), .003 (two year limitations period for personal injuries). If this is an incorrect assumption, please contact this office.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Ruth H. Soucy
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
