DAN MORALES
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Ms. Barbara G. Heptig
Assistant City Attorney
101 West Abram Street Box 231
Arlington, Texas 76004-0231

OR97-1523

Dear Ms. Heptig:

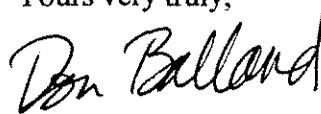

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 107683.

The Arlington Police Department (the "department") received a request for report number 970027912. You state that you will provide the requestor with "front page information." You ask whether you may withhold the "narrative portion" of the report which you have submitted as exhibit B under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and have reviewed the documents at issue.

Section 552.108 excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime," and "[a]n internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution." Gov't Code § 552.108; see Holmes v. Morales, 924 S.W.2d 920 (Tex. 1996). We note, however, that information normally found on the front page of an offense report is generally considered public. Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976); Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976). Thus, you must release the type of information that is considered to be front page offense report information, even if this information is not actually located on the front page of the offense report. See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing the types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). This includes a "detailed description of the offense" which may require the release of information within the "Officer Narrative" portion of the report. The documents at issue deal with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. We therefore conclude that, except for front page offense report information, section 552.108 of the Government Code excepts the requested records in exhibit B from required public disclosure, although you may choose to release all or part of the information at issue that is not otherwise confidential by law. Gov't Code § 552.007.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Don Ballard
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
