State of Texas

DAN MORALES
ATTORNEY GENERAL

April 20, 1998

Mr. Dick Gregg, Jr.
City Attorney
Gregg & Gregg, P.C.
16055 Space Center Blvd., Suite 150
Houston, Texas 77062

OR98-1009

Dear Mr. Gregg:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Texas Open Records Act, chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 114116.

The City of Kemah (the "city"), which your firm represents, received a request for "the name, title, and date of employment of the Kemah police officer with badge number 4212." In response to the request, you submitted to this office for review the information which you assert is responsive. You claim that the requested information is excepted from required public disclosure by section 552.108 (b) of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and have reviewed the document at issue.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code, , the "law enforcement exception," in part, reads as follows:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

(1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime;

(2) it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication; or

(3) it is information that:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

(b) An internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if:

(1) release of the internal record or notation would interfere with law enforcement or prosecution;

(2) the internal record or notation relates to law enforcement only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication; or

(3) the internal record or notation:

(A) is prepared by an attorney representing the state in anticipation of or in the course of preparing for criminal litigation; or

(B) reflects the mental impressions or legal reasoning of an attorney representing the state.

(c) This section does not except from the requirements of Section 552.021 information that is basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.

See Gov't Code § 552.108.<sup>1</sup> In your letter to this office requesting a ruling, you assert that "the connection of the name of an officer with his badge number and date of employment is an internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency that is maintained for internal use in matter relating to law enforcement or prosecution."<sup>2</sup>

We have reviewed the submitted information and your arguments, and conclude that the requested information may not be withheld from disclosure under section 552.108. See generally Open Records Decision Nos. 139 (1976) (names, sex, ethnicity, salaries, titles, and dates of employment for employees are generally public), 132 (1976); see also Houston

<sup>1</sup>The "law-enforcement exception" was not intended by the legislature to shield from public view information in the hands of police units that, absent special law enforcement needs or circumstances, would ordinarily be available to the public if possessed by a different governmental unit. See Open Records Decision Nos. 434 (1986) at 2, 287 (1981) at 2 (whether information falls within section 552.108 must be determined on a case-by-case basis).

<sup>2</sup>You further assert that "[t]his information in the wrong hands, is detrimental to the health and safety of th[is] officer." However, we note that the legislature has prohibited governmental bodies from inquiring into the motives of a requestor seeking information. Gov't Code § 552.222(b).

Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Therefore, in this instance, the submitted information may not be withheld pursuant to the claimed exception.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the facts presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,
