Mr. James L. Hall
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004
Huntsville, Texas 77342

OR2001-5850

Dear Mr. Hall:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 156146.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for copies of various records pertaining to a specified deceased inmate's "incarceration, injuries, medical treatment, and/or death at any and all [department] facility." You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to sections 552.103 and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and have reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.134 of the Government Code provides in pertinent part:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029, information obtained or maintained by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). The submitted information pertains to an inmate who was confined in a facility operated by the department prior to the time of her death. However, we note that section 552.134(a) is explicitly made subject to section 552.029 of the Government Code. Basic information regarding the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, or an alleged crime involving an inmate must be released in accordance with section 552.029(8) of the Government Code. See Gov't Code §§ 552.134(a), 552.029(8). This office has determined that basic information under section 552.029(8) includes the time and place of an incident, names of inmates and department officials directly involved in an incident, a brief narrative of the incident, a brief description of any injuries sustained, and information regarding any criminal charges or disciplinary actions filed as a result of the incident. We note that the submitted information pertains to the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, and alleged crimes involving the inmate while she was incarcerated by the department. Therefore, except for all of the basic information that must be released under section 552.029(8), the department must withhold the submitted information from disclosure pursuant to section 552.134 of the Government Code. Because we base our ruling on section 552.134, we need not address your other claim.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839.

¹ We note that "basic information" may not generally be withheld from disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision Nos. 597 (1991), 362 (1983).

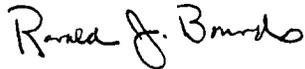

The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Ronald J. Bounds
Assistant Attorney General
