Ms. Debbie Harris
Lamar Consolidated Independent School District
3911 Avenue I
Rosenberg, Texas 77471

OR2002-0947

Dear Ms. Harris:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 159075.

The Lamar Consolidated Independent School District (the "district") received a request for information relating to independent educational evaluations. You state that the district has released most of the requested information. You claim, however, that the release of certain information in response to item 5 of the request would be an invasion of privacy. We have considered the district's claim and have reviewed the information you submitted.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from required public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." This exception encompasses the common-law right to privacy. Information must be withheld under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy when the information is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, such that its release would be highly objectionable to a person of ordinary sensibilities, and (2) of no legitimate public interest. See Industrial Found. v. Texas Ind. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976), cert. denied, 430 U.S. 931 (1977). You assert that disclosure of the home address, personal bank name, and bank account number of a consultant to the district would be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. This office has concluded that the disclosure of a person's home address is not an invasion of privacy. See Open Records Decision No. 554 at 3 (1990). We also have determined in prior decisions that while financial information that relates only to an individual ordinarily satisfies the first part of the common-law privacy test, the public has a legitimate interest in information about a financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body. See, e.g., Open Records Decision Nos. 545 at 4 (1990) ("In general, we have found the kinds of financial information not excepted from public disclosure by common-law privacy to be those regarding the receipt of governmental funds or debts owed to governmental entities"), 523 at 4 (1989) (noting distinction under common-law privacy between confidential background financial information furnished to a public body about an individual and basic facts regarding a particular financial transaction between the individual and the public body), 373 at 4 (1983) (determination of whether public's interest in obtaining personal financial information is sufficient to justify its disclosure must be made on case-by-case basis). Therefore, having considered the district's privacy claim, we conclude that the consultant's home address and personal bank name are not protected from disclosure under section 552.101.

With respect to the bank account number, we note that the Seventy-seventh Legislature added section 552.136 to chapter 552 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> This new exception is applicable to certain account numbers. It provides as follows:

(a) In this section, "access device" means a card, plate, code, account number, personal identification number, electronic serial number, mobile identification number, or other telecommunications service, equipment, or instrument identifier or means of account access that alone or in conjunction with another access device may be used to:

(1) obtain money, goods, services, or another thing of value; or

(2) initiate a transfer of funds other than a transfer originated solely by paper instrument.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.

Gov't Code § 552.136. We have marked the bank account numbers that the district must withhold under section 552.136.

The submitted documents also appear to contain the name of a student of the district. The federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 ("FERPA"), 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, provides that no federal funds will be made available under any applicable program to an educational agency or institution that releases personally identifiable information, other than directory information, contained in a student's education records to anyone but certain enumerated federal, state, and local officials and institutions, unless otherwise authorized by the student's parent. See 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(b)(1); see also 34 C.F.R. § 99.3 (defining personally identifiable information).

<sup>1</sup>The Legislature also enacted two other bills that add a section 552.136 to chapter 552. House Bill 2589 makes certain e-mail addresses confidential. See Act of May 22, 2001, 77th Leg., R.S., ch. 545, § 5, 2001 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 974, 975 (Vernon) (codified at Gov't Code § 552.136). Senate Bill 15 makes information maintained by family violence shelter centers confidential. See Act of May 3, 2001, 77th Leg., R.S., ch. 143, § 1, 2001 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 279 (Vernon) (codified at Gov't Code § 552.136). Senate Bill 694 also enacted the same language as House Bill 2589 regarding the confidentiality of e-mail addresses, but codified it as section 552.137 of the Government Code. See Act of May 14, 2001, 77th Leg., R.S., ch. 356, § 1, 2001 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 614 (Vernon) (codified at Gov't Code § 552.137).

Section 552.026 of the Government Code incorporates FERPA into chapter 552 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 634 at 6-8 (1995). Section 552.026 provides as follows:

This chapter does not require the release of information contained in education records of an educational agency or institution, except in conformity with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, Sec. 513, Pub. L. No. 93-380, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232g.

Gov't Code § 552.026. "Education records" under FERPA are those records that contain information directly related to a student and that are maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a person acting for such agency or institution. See 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(a)(4)(A). Information must be withheld from required public disclosure under FERPA only to the extent "reasonable and necessary to avoid personally identifying a particular student." See Open Records Decision Nos. 332 at 3 (1982), 206 at 2 (1978).

A notation on the consultant's invoice indicates that this document reveals a student's name. If so, then FERPA is applicable to this information, and the district may release the student's name only if it has authority under FERPA to do so. We have marked the information that FERPA may require the district to withhold.

In summary, the district must withhold the bank account numbers under section 552.136 of the Government Code. The district may release a student's name only if the district has authority under FERPA to do so. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at 877/673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Department of Public Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.--Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at 512/475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

James W. Morris, III
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

JWM/er
