

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

September 18, 2003

Mr. W. Thomas Godard
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Health
1100 West 49th Street
Austin, Texas 78756-3199

OR2003-6564

Dear Mr. Godard:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 187947.

The Texas Department of Health (the "department") received a request for any information pertaining to Nuclear Sources & Services, Inc. ("NSSI") that the department has gathered since October 2002. You seek to withhold the highlighted portions of the submitted records as information that is protected from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 418.178 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and have reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information deemed confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. We note that the Seventy-eighth Legislature recently added sections 418.176 through 418.182 to chapter 418 of the Government Code. These newly enacted provisions make certain information related to terrorism confidential. House Bill 9 which became effective on June 22, 2003, provides in relevant part:

Sec. 418.178. CONFIDENTIALITY OF CERTAIN INFORMATION RELATING TO CONSTRUCTION OR ASSEMBLY OF WEAPONS.

(a) In this section, "explosive weapon" has the meaning assigned by Section 46.01, Penal Code.

(b) Information is confidential if it is information collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental entity and:

(1) is more than likely to assist in the construction or assembly of an explosive weapon or a chemical, biological, radiological, or nuclear weapon of mass destruction; or

(2) indicates the specific location of:

(A) a chemical, biological agent, toxin, or radioactive material that is more than likely to be used in the construction or assembly of such a weapon; or

(B) unpublished information relating to a potential vaccine or to a device that detects biological agents or toxins.

Act of June 2, 2003, 78th Leg., R.S., ch. 1312, § 3, 2003 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 4814 (Vernon) (to be codified at Gov't Code § 418.178). You state that NSSI is licensed and authorized by the department to receive, acquire, possess, and transfer radioactive material. You indicate that the submitted records are maintained in the licensing and compliance files of the department's Bureau of Radiation Control. See Health & Safety Code Ch. 401 (authorizing department to license and regulate disposal of radioactive substances). You have submitted an affidavit from a radiation safety expert in the Bureau of Radiation Control who explains that the highlighted information reveals the specific location of radioactive material that, if obtained by a person with criminal intent, is more than likely to be used in the construction or assembly of a radiological weapon of mass destruction. Based on these representations and our review of the submitted information, we conclude that the highlighted information is confidential under section 418.178(b)(2)(A) of the Government Code. Accordingly, the highlighted information must be withheld from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

June B. Harden
Assistant Attorney General
