We have considered the exception you claim and have reviewed the submitted information.

You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to section 552.101 in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> In pertinent part, section 508.313 provides:

(3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

(b) Statistical and general information relating to the parole and mandatory supervision system, including the names of releasees and data recorded relating to parole and mandatory supervision services, is not confidential or privileged and must be made available for public inspection at any reasonable time.

(c) The department, on request or in the normal course of official business, shall provide information that is confidential and privileged under Subsection (a) to:

(1) the governor;

(2) a member of the [Board of Pardons and Paroles];

(3) the Criminal Justice Policy Council in performing duties of the council under Section 413.017 [of the Government Code]; or

(d) In this section, "eligible entity" means:

(1) a government agency, including the office of a prosecuting attorney;

(2) an organization with which the department contracts or an organization to which the department provides a grant; or

(3) an organization to which inmates are referred for services by the department.

(f) This section does not apply to information that is subject to required public disclosure under Section 552.029 [of the Government Code].

Act of May 21, 1997, 75th Leg., R.S., ch. 165, § 12.01, 1997 Tex. Gen. Laws 436, amended by Act of April 1, 2003, 78th Leg. R.S., ch. 6, § 3, 2003 Vernon's Sess. Law Serv. 6, 7-8. A releasee is a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision. See Gov't Code § 508.001(9). You state that the submitted information is held by the Parole Division of the department as part of the offender's parole file. You also state that upon release from prison, the offender came under the administrative supervision of the department's Parole Division and is, therefore, a "releasee" as contemplated by section 508.313(a)(2). Based on your representations and our review of the submitted information, we find that the information is made confidential by section 508.313. The requestor does not appear to be an entity authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). In addition, we have no indication that any portion of the submitted information is made public under section 552.029 of the Government Code,<sup>2</sup> see Gov't Code § 508.313(f), or under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure,<sup>3</sup> see Gov't Code § 508.313(e). If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report
