

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

November 24, 2003

Ms. Wendy Denson
Special Projects Unit
Williamson County Sheriff's Office
508 South Rock Street
Georgetown, Texas 78626

OR2003-8452

Dear Ms. Denson:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 191597.

The Williamson County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for all records pertaining to two named individuals during a certain time period. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.108 and 552.117 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note that the submitted information is subject to section 552.022 of the Government Code. Section 552.022 provides in relevant part:

(a) Without limiting the amount or kind of information that is public information under this chapter, the following categories of information are public information and not excepted from required disclosure under this chapter unless they are expressly confidential under other law:

(1) a completed report, audit, evaluation, or investigation made of, for, or by a governmental body, except as provided by Section 552.108[.]

The information at issue is a completed internal affairs investigation. The completed investigation must be released unless it is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 or confidential under other law. See Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(1). Thus, we will address your section 552.108 arguments with respect to the submitted information.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code provides in relevant part:

(a) Information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime is excepted from [required public disclosure] if:

(2) it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication[.]

Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body that raises section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to that information. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977); Open Records Decision Nos. 562 at 10 (1990), 434 at 2-3 (1986).

We note that information about complaints against peace officers generally may not be withheld under section 552.108. For example, the names of complainants, the names of the officers who are the subjects of complaints, an officer's written response to a complaint, and the final disposition of a complaint generally are not excepted from disclosure by section 552.108. Open Records Decision Nos. 350 at 3 (1982), 342 at 2 (1982), 329 at 2 (1982). In addition, section 552.108 is inapplicable where a complaint against a law enforcement officer does not result in a criminal investigation or prosecution. Morales v. Ellen, 840 S.W.2d 519, 525-526 (Tex. App.—El Paso 1992, writ denied) (construing statutory predecessor); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982) (stating that statutory predecessor was not applicable to internal affairs investigation file when no criminal charge against police officer results from investigation). In this case, the submitted information relates to an internal affairs investigation of a violation of departmental policy, rather than to a criminal investigation. Investigations into non-criminal matters are not excepted from disclosure by section 552.108 of the Government Code. Morales v. Ellen, 840 S.W.2d at 526 (predecessor statute to section 552.108 not applicable where no criminal investigation resulted). Because the submitted information does not relate to a criminal investigation by the sheriff's office, we find that the submitted information is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.108.

Section 552.117(a)(2) excepts from required public disclosure the home address, home telephone number, social security number, and the family member information of a peace officer as defined by article 2.12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. See Open Records Decision No. 622 (1994). You state that the employee to whom the investigation at issue relates is a licensed peace officer. Therefore, the sheriff's office must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117(a)(2).

We note that the submitted documents contain a Texas driver's license number that is excepted from disclosure under section 552.130 of the Government Code. Section 552.130 excepts information relating to a Texas motor vehicle driver's license and information relating to a Texas motor vehicle title or registration. Gov't Code § 552.130. The sheriff's office must withhold the marked Texas driver's license number under section 552.130.

We also note that the social security number included in the submitted information may be confidential under federal law. A social security number may be withheld in some circumstances under section 552.101 in conjunction with the 1990 amendments to the federal Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 405(c)(2)(C)(viii)(I). See Open Records Decision No. 622 (1994). These amendments make confidential social security numbers and related records that are obtained or maintained by a state agency or political subdivision of the state pursuant to any provision of law enacted on or after October 1, 1990. See id. We have no basis for concluding that the social security numbers are confidential under section 405(c)(2)(C)(viii)(I), and therefore excepted from public disclosure under section 552.101 on the basis of that federal provision. We caution, however, that section 552.352 of the Government Code imposes criminal penalties for the release of confidential information. Prior to releasing any social security number information, you should ensure that no such information was obtained or is maintained by the sheriff's office pursuant to any provision of law enacted on or after October 1, 1990.

In summary, the sheriff's office must withhold the marked information under sections 552.117 and 552.130. The sheriff's office may be required to withhold the marked social security number under section 552.101. The remaining information must be released under section 552.022.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Amy D. Peterson
