Assistant Disclosure Officer
Information Release
Texas Workforce Commission

OR2003-9014

Dear Ms. Caruso:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 192701.

The Texas Workforce Commission (the "commission") received a request for all documents or other records regarding a named individual. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, and 552.107 of the Government Code. We have reviewed the representative sample of information you submitted and considered the exceptions you claim.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." This section encompasses the confidentiality provisions of other statutes. In Open Records Decision No. 476 (1987), this office determined that "claim information" was confidential under federal regulations enacted pursuant to statutory authority. See 20 C.F.R. §§ 603.1 et seq. "Claim information" means information regarding "whether an individual is receiving, has received or has applied for unemployment compensation[.]" 20 C.F.R. § 603.2(c)(1).

<sup>1</sup>We assume the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach and, therefore, does not authorize the withholding of any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Pursuant to title 20, section 603.7 of the Code of Federal Regulations, state unemployment compensation agencies, such as the commission, must protect the confidentiality of claim information. 20 C.F.R. § 603.7. You argue that the federal Social Security Act requires states to comply with the directives of the United States Department of Labor (the “department”) in administering state Unemployment Insurance (“UI”) programs and that a department directive, (UI Program Letter No. 34-97), specifies the conditions under which such claim information may be released. Based on your arguments and our review of the submitted information, we believe that the information contained in the commission’s records relate to whether the individual has received or applied for unemployment compensation. See 20 C.F.R. § 603.2(c)(1). Therefore, we conclude that the submitted information constitutes claim information made confidential by title 20, section 603.7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. See 20 C.F.R. § 603.7. Accordingly, the commission must withhold all of the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with federal law unless otherwise authorized to release the information under part 603 of title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations or UI Program Letter No. 34-97.<sup>2</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov’t Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body’s intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Debbie K. Lee
