Ms. J. Middlebrooks
Assistant City Attorney
Dallas Police Department
1400 South Lamar Street #300A
Dallas, Texas 75215-1801

OR2004-3518

Dear Ms. Middlebrooks:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 200520.

The Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for the personnel file of a named officer. You claim that portions of the requested information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.117, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.¹

We first address your contention that some of the requested information is made confidential by Chapter 611 of the Health and Safety Code, which provides for the confidentiality of records created or maintained by a mental health professional. Section 611.002(a) reads as follows:

Communications between a patient and a professional, and records of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient that are created or maintained by a professional, are confidential.

Health & Safety Code § 611.002(a). Section 611.001 defines a "professional" as (1) a person authorized to practice medicine, (2) a person licensed or certified by the state to diagnose, ¹We assume that the sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

evaluate or treat mental or emotional conditions or disorders, or (3) a person the patient reasonably believes is authorized, licensed, or certified. Sections 611.004 and 611.0045 provide for access to mental health records only by certain individuals. See Open Records Decision No. 565 (1990). We have marked the information that constitutes mental health records, which may only be released in accordance with the access provisions of sections 611.004 and 611.0045 of the Health and Safety Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision” and encompasses laws that make criminal history record information (“CHRI”) confidential. CHRI “means information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions” but does not include “driving record information maintained by [the Department of Public Safety (“DPS”)] under Subchapter C, Chapter 521, Transportation Code.” Gov’t Code § 411.082(2).

Federal regulations prohibit the release of CHRI maintained in state and local CHRI systems to the general public. See 28 C.F.R. § 20.21(c)(1) (“Use of criminal history record information disseminated to noncriminal justice agencies shall be limited to the purpose for which it was given.”), (2) (“No agency or individual shall confirm the existence or nonexistence of criminal history record information to any person or agency that would not be eligible to receive the information itself.”). Under chapter 411 of the Government Code, a criminal justice agency may obtain CHRI from DPS or from another criminal justice agency. Gov’t Code §§ 411.083(b)(1), .087(a)(2), .089(a). However, CHRI so obtained is confidential and may only be disclosed in very limited instances. Id. § 411.084; see also Gov’t Code § 411.087 (restrictions on disclosure of CHRI obtained from DPS also apply to CHRI obtained from other criminal justice agencies). Therefore, you must withhold any CHRI that you have in your possession that falls within the ambit of these state and federal regulations.

Section 552.101 also encompasses information made confidential by section 1701.306 of the Occupations Code. This section governs certain declarations of medical condition and of psychological and emotional health and provides:

(a) The commission may not issue a license to a person as an officer or county jailer unless the person is examined by:

(1) a licensed psychologist or by a psychiatrist who declares in writing that the person is in satisfactory psychological and emotional health to serve as the type of officer for which a license is sought; and

(2) a licensed physician who declares in writing that the person does not show any trace of drug dependency or illegal drug use after a physical examination, blood test, or other medical test.

(b) An agency hiring a person for whom a license as an officer or county jailer is sought shall select the examining physician and the examining psychologist or psychiatrist. The agency shall prepare a report of each declaration required by Subsection (a) and shall maintain a copy of the report on file in a format readily accessible to the commission. A declaration is not public information.

Occ. Code § 1701.306 (emphasis added). We have marked the information that must be withheld under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 1701.306.

As you point out, the requested documents also include information obtained in the course of conducting a polygraph examination, the release of which is prohibited by law. Section 1703.306 of the Occupations Code provides that “a person for whom a polygraph examination is conducted . . . may not disclose information acquired from a polygraph examination” except to certain categories of people. Because the requestor does not fall within any of the enumerated categories, pursuant to section 552.101 and section 1703.306, you must withhold the polygraph information that we have marked.

In addition, you assert that “detail sheets” and officers’ mobile and pager telephone numbers may be withheld pursuant to section 552.108. Section 552.108(b)(1) excepts from disclosure “[a]n internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that is maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement or prosecution . . . if: (1) release of the internal record or notation would interfere with law enforcement or prosecution.” Section 552.108(b)(1) is intended to protect “information which, if released, would permit private citizens to anticipate weaknesses in a police department, avoid detection, jeopardize officer safety, and generally undermine police efforts to effectuate the laws of this State.” City of Fort Worth v. Cornyn, 86 S.W.3d 320, 327 (Tex. App.—Austin 2002, no pet.).

To prevail on its claim that section 552.108(b)(1) excepts information from disclosure, a law-enforcement agency must do more than merely make a conclusory assertion that releasing the information would interfere with law enforcement. Instead, the governmental body must meet its burden of explaining how and why release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement and crime prevention. See Open Records Decision No. 562 at 10 (1990) (construing statutory predecessor). In addition, generally known policies and techniques may not be withheld under section 552.108. See, e.g., Open Records Decision Nos. 531 at 2-3 (1989) (Penal Code provisions, common law rules, and constitutional limitations on use of force are not protected under law enforcement exception), 252 at 3 (1980) (governmental body did not meet burden because it did not indicate why investigative procedures and techniques requested were any different from those commonly known). The determination of whether the release of particular records would interfere with law enforcement is made on a case-by-case basis. See Open Records Decision No. 409 at 2 (1984) (construing statutory predecessor).

You explain that the detail sheets indicate “the allocation of [department] patrol officers in the field” and identifies “the number and beat location of each [department] patrol officer within a given work shift.” You contend that such information “could be used by an individual to identify potential weaknesses in the police department and to avoid detection by officers because the individual would have a better knowledge of the actual allocation of [the department’s] manpower in the field.” You also contend that disclosure of the officers’ mobile and pager telephone numbers would interfere with law enforcement because the “officers need these particular lines of communication available to take care of their immediate needs in the fields.” Having considered your arguments and representations, we find that you have established that release of the detail sheets and telephone numbers would interfere with law enforcement. Therefore, this information may be withheld pursuant to section 552.108(b)(1). See Open Records Decision No. 506 at 2 (1988) (predecessor to section 552.108(b) excepted from disclosure “the cellular mobile phone numbers assigned to county officials and employees with specific law enforcement responsibilities”).

You also assert that some of the requested information must be withheld pursuant to section 552.117 of the Government Code. Section 552.117(a)(2) excepts from disclosure the present and former home addresses and telephone numbers, social security numbers, and family member information of a peace officer regardless of whether the officer requests confidentiality under section 552.024 or 552.1175.² You indicate that the individual at issue was a licensed peace officer when the department received this request. Therefore, we agree that, under section 552.117(a)(2), the department must withhold the listed information concerning this individual. We have marked the type information that the department must withhold.

You further contend that a portion of the submitted information is excepted under section 552.130. This section excepts from disclosure “information [that] relates to . . . a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit issued by an agency of this state [or] a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state.” Pursuant to section 552.130, the department must withhold the type of information we have marked.

Finally, we note that the submitted information includes a city credit union account number. Section 552.136 of the Government Code provides that “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.” Gov’t

²“Peace officer” is defined by article 2.12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Code § 552.136. Thus, pursuant to this section the department must withhold the account number we have marked.

In summary, mental health records may only be released in accordance with chapter 611 of the Health and Safety Code. Any CHRI that the department has in its possession must be withheld pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code and the relevant federal and state provisions. We have marked the information that must be withheld under section 552.101 in conjunction with sections 1701.306 and 1703.306 of the Occupations Code. The detail sheets and officers' mobile and pager telephone numbers may be withheld pursuant to section 552.108(b)(1). Pursuant to section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code, the department must withhold the present and former home addresses and telephone numbers, social security numbers, and family member information of peace officers. We have marked motor vehicle record information that the department must withhold pursuant to section 552.130 of the Government Code. In accordance with section 552.136 of the Government Code, the department must also withhold the account number we have marked. The remaining requested information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Denis C. McElroy
