

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

November 15, 2004

Mr. Michael G. Morris
Attorney at Law
5350 South Staples, Suite 222
Corpus Christi, Texas 78411-4684

OR2004-9665

Dear Mr. Morris:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 212807.

The City of Port Aransas (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for ten categories of information. You state that you have no documents responsive to two of the requested categories of information.<sup>1</sup> You further state that you have released information responsive to all but one of the remaining requested categories of information. You claim that the submitted information is not subject to the Act. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

The Act is applicable to "public information." See Gov't Code § 552.021. "Public information" is defined as information that is collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business:

- (1) by a governmental body; or
- (2) for a governmental body and the governmental body owns the information or has a right of access to it.

<sup>1</sup> We note that the Public Information Act (the "Act") does not require a governmental body to disclose information that did not exist at the time the request was received. Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex.Civ.App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision No. 452 at 3 (1986).

Gov't Code § 552.002(a). Thus, virtually all information in the physical possession of a governmental body is public information that is encompassed by the Act. Id. § 552.022(a)(1); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 549 at 4 (1990), 514 at 1-2 (1988). Likewise, the Act is applicable to information that a governmental body does not physically possess, if the information is collected, assembled, or maintained for a governmental body, and the governmental body owns the information or has a right of access to it. Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(2); see also Open Records Decision No. 462 at 4 (1987) (Act applies to information collected or maintained by consultant if information relates to governmental body's official duties or business, consultant acts as agent of governmental body in collecting information, and governmental body has or is entitled to access to information). However, the Act does not require a governmental body to release information if the governmental body that receives the request has neither possession of the information nor a right of access to it. See Open Records Decision Nos. 534 at 2-3 (1989), 518 at 2-3 (1989).

Having considered your arguments and reviewed the information at issue, we agree that the submitted information does not constitute "public information" of the city. See ORD 534 at 2-3, 518 at 2-3. Consequently, the city is not required to disclose the submitted e-mail communication under chapter 552 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, within 10 calendar days of this ruling, the governmental body will do one of the following three things: 1) release the public records; 2) notify the requestor of the exact day, time, and place that copies of the records will be provided or that the records can be inspected; or 3) notify the requestor of the governmental body's intent to challenge this letter ruling in court. If the governmental body fails to do one of these three things within 10 calendar days of this ruling, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Texas Building and Procurement Commission at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. We note that a third party may challenge this ruling by filing suit seeking to withhold information from a requestor. Gov't Code § 552.325. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Caroline E. Cho
