

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 26, 2005

Mr. David M. Swope
County Attorney
Harris County
1019 Congress, 15th Floor
Houston, Texas 77002-1700

OR2005-09711

Dear Mr. Swope:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 235296.

The Harris County Constable, Precinct 2, (the "constable") received a request for the personnel records for a named former deputy constable. You have released some information but claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, 552.1175, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes. The submitted information includes an ST-3 accident report form completed pursuant to chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. See Transp. Code § 550.064 (Texas Peace Officer's Accident Report form). Section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code states that except as provided by subsection (c), accident reports are privileged and confidential. Section 550.065(c)(4) provides for the release of accident reports to a person who provides two of the following three pieces of information: (1) date of the accident; (2) name of any person involved in the accident; and (3) specific location of the accident. Transp. Code § 550.065(c)(4). In this instance, the requestor has not provided the department with two of the three pieces of information specified by section 550.065. Thus, you must withhold this accident report, which we have marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 550.065(b).

An I-9 Form is governed by title 8, section 1324a of the United States Code, which provides that the form “may not be used for purposes other than for enforcement of this chapter” and for enforcement of other federal statutes governing crime and criminal investigations. 8 U.S.C. § 1324a(b)(5). Release of this document under the Act would be “for purposes other than for enforcement” of the referenced federal statute. Accordingly, we conclude that the submitted I-9 Form is confidential for purposes of section 552.101 of the Government Code and may only be released in compliance with the federal laws and regulations governing the employment verification system.

Federal tax return information is confidential under section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code. See 26 U.S.C. § 6103(a). The term “return information” includes “the nature, source, or amount of income” of a taxpayer. See 26 U.S.C. § 6103(b)(2). Our office has specifically held that a governmental body must withhold a W-4 form in its entirety. Open Records Decision No. 600 at 9 (1992). Therefore, the constable must withhold the submitted W-4 form under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 6103 of title 26 of the United States Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses criminal history record information (“CHRI”) generated by the National Crime Information Center or by the Texas Crime Information Center. Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI that states obtain from the federal government or other states. Open Records Decision No. 565 (1990). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Id. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI that the Texas Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) maintains, except that the DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See Gov’t Code § 411.083.

Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Other entities specified in chapter 411 of the Government Code are entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS or another criminal justice agency; however, those entities may not release CHRI except as provided by chapter 411. See generally id. §§ 411.090 - .127. Furthermore, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F. See Gov’t Code § 411.082(2)(B) (term CHRI does not include driving record information). Therefore, the constable must withhold the CHRI that we have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code.

The submitted documents also contain fingerprint information. Chapter 560 of the Government Code provides that a governmental body may not release fingerprint information except in certain limited circumstances. See Gov't Code §§ 560.001 (defining "biometric identifier" to include fingerprints), .002 (prescribing manner in which biometric identifiers must be maintained and circumstances in which they can be released), .003 (providing that biometric identifiers in possession of governmental body are exempt from disclosure under Act). You do not inform us, and the submitted information does not indicate, that section 560.002 permits the disclosure of the submitted fingerprint information. Therefore, the constable must withhold this information, which we have marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 560.003 of the Government Code.

You submitted information also includes L-2 Declarations of Medical Condition and L-3 Declarations of Psychological and Emotional Health required by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education that are confidential pursuant to section 1701.306 of the Occupations Code. Section 1701.306 provides as follows:

(a) The commission may not issue a license to a person as an officer or county jailer unless the person is examined by:

(1) a licensed psychologist or by a psychiatrist who declares in writing that the person is in satisfactory psychological and emotional health to serve as the type of officer for which a license is sought; and

(2) a licensed physician who declares in writing that the person does not show any trace of drug dependency or illegal drug use after a physical examination, blood test, or other medical test.

(b) An agency hiring a person for whom a license as an officer or county jailer is sought shall select the examining physician and the examining psychologist or psychiatrist. The agency shall prepare a report of each declaration required by Subsection (a) and shall maintain a copy of the report on file in a format readily accessible to the commission. A declaration is not public information.

Occ. Code § 1701.306. Therefore, the constable must withhold the submitted L-2 and L-3 declarations under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 1701.306 of the Occupations Code.

You claim a portion of the information is made confidential by section 58.007 of the Family Code. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007. The relevant language of section 58.007(c) reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapter B.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 is only applicable to records pertaining to juvenile suspects or offenders. See id.; see also Fam. Code § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating a need for supervision” for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). You claim portions of an internal affairs investigation are confidential under section 58.007. However, this information does not pertain to a juvenile suspect or offender. Thus, this information is not confidential under section 58.007 and may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

You also argue a portion of the submitted information contains medical records, access to which is governed by the Medical Practice Act (“MPA”), chapter 159 of the Occupations Code. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides:

- (b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient’s behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Occ. Code § 159.002. However, upon review, we conclude that the submitted information does not include any medical records subject to the MPA. Thus, the constable may not withhold any portion of the submitted information under the MPA.

We next address your claim that portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.102 of the Government Code. Section 552.102 excepts from disclosure “information in a personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” Gov’t Code § 552.102(a). In Hubert v.

Harte-Hanks Texas Newspapers, 652 S.W.2d 546 (Tex. App.—Austin 1983, writ ref'd n.r.e.), the court ruled that the test to be applied to information claimed to be protected under section 552.102(a) is the same as the test formulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation for information claimed to be protected under the doctrine of common-law privacy as incorporated by section 552.101 of the Act. See Industrial Found. v. Texas Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 683-85 (Tex. 1976), cert. denied, 430 U.S. 931 (1977). Accordingly, we consider your privacy claim under section 552.102(a) together with section 552.101.

In order for information to be protected from public disclosure by the doctrine of common-law privacy under section 552.101, the information must meet the criteria set out in Industrial Foundation. In Industrial Foundation, the Texas Supreme Court stated that information is excepted from disclosure if (1) the information contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts the release of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) the information is not of legitimate concern to the public. Id. at 685. This office has found that the following types of information are excepted from required public disclosure under common-law privacy: some kinds of medical information or information indicating disabilities or specific illnesses, see Open Records Decision Nos. 470 (1987) (illness from severe emotional and job-related stress), 455 (1987) (prescription drugs, illnesses, operations, and physical handicaps), and personal financial information not relating to the financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body, see Open Records Decision Nos. 600 (1992) (public employee's withholding allowance certificate, designation of beneficiary of employee's retirement benefits, direct deposit authorization, and employee's decisions regarding voluntary benefits programs, among others, are protected under common-law privacy), 545 (1990) (deferred compensation information, mortgage payments, assets, bills, and credit history protected under common-law privacy), 373 (1983) (sources of income not related to financial transaction between individual and governmental body protected under common-law privacy). Accordingly, we have marked the medical and personal financial information in the submitted documents that must be withheld under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Some of the submitted information may also be excepted under section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code.¹ Section 552.117(a)(2) excepts from required public disclosure the home address, home telephone number, social security number, and the family member information of a peace officer as defined by article 2.12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or of a security officer commissioned under section 51.212 of the Education Code. See Open Records Decision No. 622 (1994). In this case, the named individual at issue is no longer employed as a deputy by the constable. If the named individual at issue remains either a licensed peace officer as defined by article 2.12 or a security officer commissioned under section 51.212 of the Education Code, the constable must withhold the marked personal information pursuant to section 552.117(a)(2).

If the named former deputy constable is no longer a peace officer, his personal information may be excepted under section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code. Section 552.117(a)(1) excepts from disclosure the home addresses and telephone numbers, social security numbers, and family member information of current or former officials or employees of a governmental body who request that this information be kept confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code. Whether a particular piece of information is protected by section 552.117 must be determined at the time the request for it is made. See Open Records Decision No. 530 at 5 (1989). The constable may only withhold information under section 552.117(1) if the former deputy constable made a request for confidentiality under section 552.024 prior to the date on which the request for this information was made. If the former deputy constable timely elected to keep his personal information confidential, the constable must withhold the marked personal information regardless of whether he is still a peace officer. The constable may not withhold this information under section 552.117(1) if the former deputy constable did not make a timely election to keep the information confidential.²

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information that “relates to . . . a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit issued by an agency of this state [or] a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state.” Gov’t Code § 552.130. In accordance with section 552.130 of the Government Code, the constable must withhold the Texas motor vehicle record information we have marked. See Gov’t Code § 552.130.

We note that the submitted information contains social security numbers. Section 552.147 of the Government Code³ provides that “[t]he social security number of a living person is excepted from” required public disclosure under the Act. Therefore, the constable must withhold the social security numbers contained in the submitted information under section 552.147.⁴

In summary, the constable must withhold the following confidential information under section 552.101 of the Government Code: (1) the marked ST-3 report pursuant to section 550.065 of the Transportation Code, (2) the submitted I-9 form pursuant to section 1324a of title 8 of the United States Code, (3) the submitted W-4 form pursuant to section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code, (4) the marked CHRI pursuant to chapter 411 of the Government Code, (5) the marked fingerprint information pursuant to section 560.003 of the Government Code, (6) the submitted L-2 and L-3 declarations pursuant to section 1701.306 of the Government Code, and (7) the marked medical and personal financial information pursuant to the common-law right to privacy. Finally, the constable must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117, if this section applies, as well as under sections 552.130 and 552.147 of the Government Code. The remaining submitted information must be released.

²In light of our ruling on these issues, we need not address your argument that section 552.1175 of the Government Code applies to the submitted information.

³Added by Act of May 23, 2005, 79th Leg., R.S., S.B. 1485, § 1, sec. 552.147(a) (to be codified at Tex. Gov’t Code § 552.147).

⁴We note that you have redacted some social security numbers from the submitted documents. Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person’s social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Ramsey A. Abarca
Assistant Attorney General
