

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

November 18, 2005

Mr. James M. Kuboviak
County Attorney
Brazos County
300 East 26th Street, Suite 325
Bryan, Texas 77803-5327

OR2005-10469

Dear Mr. Kuboviak:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 236720.

The Brazos County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for the medical records of a named former Brazos County Jail inmate from the former inmate's attorney. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Initially, we note that a portion of the submitted information is not responsive to the present request. Accordingly, we do not address your arguments for this information, which we have marked, and it need not be released in response to the present request.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section ¹We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

encompasses information protected by other statutes. Access to medical records is governed by the Medical Practice Act (the "MPA"), subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides:

- (a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.
- (c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient's behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Occ. Code § 159.002(a)-(c). Medical records must be released upon the patient's signed, written consent, provided that the consent specifies (1) the information to be covered by the release, (2) reasons or purposes for the release, and (3) the person to whom the information is to be released. Id. §§ 159.004, 159.005. Section 159.002(c) also requires that any subsequent release of medical records be consistent with the purposes for which the governmental body obtained the records. Open Records Decision No. 565 at 7 (1990). Medical records may be released only as provided under the MPA. Open Records Decision No. 598 (1991). We have marked the submitted records that are subject to the MPA.² Because the requestor is the attorney for the individual to whom these medical records pertain, he may have a right of access to these records. These medical records may only be released if the MPA permits the sheriff to do so.

The submitted documents also include dental records that are subject to chapter 258 of the Occupations Code. Section 258.102 of the Occupations Code provides as follows:

- (a) The following information is privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this article:

²We note that the submitted information includes nurses' and clinic notes regarding evaluation and treatment of the inmate in question. To the extent such nurses' and clinic notes were created by personnel acting under the supervision of a physician, they constitute medical records within the scope of the MPA. However, if these notes were not created under the supervision of a physician, they are not subject to the MPA.

- (1) a communication between a dentist and a patient that relates to a professional service provided by the dentist; and
- (2) a dental record.

(b) The privilege described by this section applies regardless of when the patient received the professional service from the dentist.

Occ. Code § 258.102. A “dental record” means dental information about a patient that is created or maintained by a dentist and relates to the history or treatment of the patient. See id. §258.101(1). Information that is privileged under chapter 258 of the Occupations Code may be disclosed only under certain specified circumstances. See id. § 258.104 (consent to disclosure); see also id. §§ 258.105, .106, .107 (exceptions to privilege). The written consent for the release of privileged information required under section 258.104 must specify (1) the information covered by the release, (2) the person to whom the information is to be released, and (3) the purpose for the release. See id. § 258.104(c). A person who receives information that is privileged under section 258.102 of the Occupations Code may disclose that information to another person only to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the purpose for which the information was obtained. See id. § 258.108. We have marked the portions of the submitted information that are subject to section 258.102 of the Occupations Code. The sheriff may only release the information we have marked if it has authorization under chapter 258 of the Occupations Code to do so.

Mental health records are confidential under section 611.002 of the Health and Safety Code. This section provides in part:

- (a) Communications between a patient and a professional, and records of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient that are created or maintained by a professional, are confidential.
- (b) Confidential communications or records may not be disclosed except as provided by Section 611.004 or 611.0045.

Health & Safety Code § 611.002(a)-(b). Section 611.001 defines a “professional” as (1) a person authorized to practice medicine, (2) a person licensed or certified by the state to diagnose, evaluate or treat mental or emotional conditions or disorders, or (3) a person the patient reasonably believes is authorized, licensed, or certified. See id. § 611.001(2). Sections 611.004 and 611.0045 provide for access to mental health records only by certain individuals. See id. §§ 611.004, 611.0045; Open Records Decision No. 565 (1990). We have marked the portions of the submitted information that are confidential under section 611.002. The sheriff may only release the submitted mental health records if the requestor has a right of access to them under sections 611.004 and 611.0045.

We turn now to your claim under section 552.103 of the Government Code. Section 552.103 provides in relevant part:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). A governmental body has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show that the section 552.103(a) exception is applicable in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing that (1) litigation was pending or reasonably anticipated on the date the governmental body received the request for information, and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, no pet.); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990). A governmental body must meet both prongs of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a).

To establish that litigation is reasonably anticipated, a governmental body must provide this office "concrete evidence showing that the claim that litigation may ensue is more than mere conjecture." Open Records Decision No. 452 at 4 (1986). Concrete evidence to support a claim that litigation is reasonably anticipated may include, for example, the governmental body's receipt of a letter containing a specific threat to sue the governmental body from an attorney for a potential opposing party. Open Records Decision No. 555 (1990); see Open Records Decision No. 518 at 5 (1989) (litigation must be "realistically contemplated"). On the other hand, this office has determined that if an individual publicly threatens to bring suit against a governmental body, but does not actually take objective steps toward filing suit, litigation is not reasonably anticipated. See Open Records Decision No. 331 (1982). Further, the fact that a potential opposing party has hired an attorney who makes a request for information does not establish that litigation is reasonably anticipated. Open Records Decision No. 361 (1983). In this instance, you have not demonstrated that the former inmate has taken any objective steps toward litigation against the sheriff. Thus, we find the sheriff has not established that the information at issue is related to reasonably anticipated litigation. Accordingly, the sheriff may not withhold the information at issue under section 552.103.

In summary, the submitted medical records may only be released in accordance with the MPA. The submitted dental records may only be released in accordance with chapter 258 of the Occupations Code. The submitted mental health records may only be released to the extent the requestor has a right of access under section 611.004 and 611.045 of the Health and Safety Code. The remaining submitted information must be released to the requestor.³

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

³We note that some of the documents being released contain confidential information belonging to the named former inmate, which is normally excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common law privacy. However, the requestor, as the former inmate's attorney, has a special right of access to this information. Gov't Code § 552.023. If the sheriff receives a future request for this information from an individual other than the requestor or the subject of the information, the sheriff should again seek our decision.

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

L. Joseph James
Assistant Attorney General
