

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 20, 2006

Mr. Mark P. Tilley
Powell & Leon, L.L.P.
1706 West Sixth Street
Austin, Texas 78703-4703

OR2006-12401

Dear Mr. Tilley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 265865.

The Beeville Independent School District (the "district"), which you represent, received a request from the representative of the parents of the child whose information is at issue. The requestor seeks the "Level 3 record." The district has released all but the audiotape of a closed meeting, which it claims is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Initially, we note that the requested information is an education record. Recently, the United States Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office (the "DOE") informed this office that the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), 20 U.S.C. § 1232(a) does not permit state and local educational authorities to disclose to this office, without parental consent, unredacted, personally identifiable information contained in education records for the purpose of our review in the open records ruling process under the Act.¹ Consequently, state and local educational authorities that receive a request for education records from a member of the public under the Act must not submit education records to this office in unredacted form, that is, in a form in which “personally identifiable information” is disclosed. See 34 C.F.R. § 99.3 (defining “personally identifiable information”). However, if the district obtains parental consent to submit unredacted education records, and the district seeks a ruling from this office on the proper redaction of those education records in compliance with FERPA, we will rule accordingly. Because our office is prohibited from reviewing education records to determine the applicability of FERPA, we will not address FERPA with respect to the information other than to note that parents have a right of access to their own child’s education records. 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(a)(1)(A); 34 C.F.R. § 99.3. We further note that the DOE has also informed this office that if a state law prohibits a school district from providing a parent with access to the education records of his or her child and an opportunity to inspect and review the record, then the state statute conflicts with FERPA, and an educational agency or institution must comply with FERPA if it wishes to continue to receive federal education funds. Letter advisement from Ellen Campbell, Family Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education to Robert Patterson, Open Records Division, Office of the Texas Attorney General (April 9, 2001). See Equal Employment Opportunity Comm’n v. City of Orange, 905 F. Supp 381, 382 (E.D. Tex. 1995); Open Records Decision No. 431 (1985) (FERPA prevails when in conflict with state law). Because the educational authority in possession of the education records is now responsible for determining the applicability of FERPA, we will only address your claimed exception for the requested information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code exempts from disclosure information deemed confidential by law. Section 551.104(c) of the Government Code provides that “[t]he certified agenda or tape of a closed meeting is available for public inspection and copying only under a court order issued under Subsection (b)(3).” (Emphasis added.) Thus, such information cannot be released to a member of the public in response to an open records request. See Open Records Decision No. 495 (1988). Thus, the requested information is confidential under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 551.104(c) of the Government Code.

In summary, this ruling does not address the applicability of FERPA to the requested information. Should the district determine that all or portions of the information consists of an “education record” subject to FERPA, the district must dispose of the information in accordance with FERPA, rather than the Act. With respect to your claimed exception, the requested information is confidential under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 551.104(c) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov’t Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within ten calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Tex. Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within ten calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Yen-Ha Le
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
