

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 17, 2007

Ms. Molly Shortall
Assistant City Attorney
City of Arlington
P.O. Box 90231
Arlington, Texas 76004-3231

OR2007-06126

Dear Ms. Shortall:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 282235.

The City of Arlington (the "city") received two requests for information relating to a proposal to host the 2011 Super Bowl. You state that some information is being released to the requestors, but claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.104, 552.106, 552.107, and 552.117 of the Government Code. In addition, you have notified 121 interested third parties of the city's receipt of the request for information and of the right of each third party to submit arguments to this office as to why the requested information should not be released to the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (determining that statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in Act in certain circumstances). We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.104 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Gov't Code § 552.104(a). This exception protects a governmental body's interests in connection with competitive bidding and in certain other competitive situations. See Open Records Decision No. 593 (1991) (construing statutory predecessor). This office has held that a governmental body may seek protection as a competitor in the marketplace under section 552.104 and avail itself of the “competitive advantage” aspect of this exception if it can satisfy two criteria. See id. First, the governmental body must demonstrate that it has specific marketplace interests. See id. at 3. Second, the governmental body must demonstrate a specific threat of actual or potential harm to its interests in a particular competitive situation. See id. at 5. Thus, the question of whether the release of particular information will harm a governmental body’s legitimate interests as a competitor in a marketplace depends on the sufficiency of the governmental body’s demonstration of the prospect of specific harm to its marketplace interests in a particular competitive situation. See id. at 10. A general allegation of a remote possibility of harm is not sufficient. See Open Records Decision No. 514 at 2 (1988).

You seek to withhold the information submitted as Exhibits D, E, and F under section 552.104. You inform us that the city, through the North Texas Super Bowl XLV Bidding Committee, Inc., is seeking to have the North Texas region selected as host for the Super Bowl in 2011. You explain that the selection process involves the submission of competitive bids to the National Football League, which will review the bids and select the most qualified city or region, based on a competitive analysis. You inform us that the selection of the North Texas region to host the Super Bowl would have an estimated $300 million economic impact on the city and other governmental entities in the area. You state that the bidding process is ongoing and that bidders still have the ability to amend their proposals. You assert that the information in Exhibits D, E, and F reflects bidding strategy and bid preparation. You contend that the release of this information would give advantages to other bidders and result in substantial competitive harm to the city. Based on your representations, we find that you have demonstrated that the city has specific marketplace interests in the Super Bowl site selection process. We also find that you have sufficiently shown that the release of the information at issue would result in specific harm to the city’s marketplace interests. We therefore conclude that the city may withhold Exhibits D, E, and F at this time under section 552.104.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 excepts from public disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information that is made confidential by statute. You raise section 552.101 in conjunction with section 551.104 of the Open Meetings Act, chapter 551 of the Government Code. Section 551.104 provides in part that “[t]he certified agenda or tape of a closed meeting is available for public inspection and copying only under a court order issued under Subsection (b)(3).” Id. § 551.104(c). Thus, such information cannot be released to a member of the public in response to an open records request. Section 551.146 of the Open Meetings Act makes it a criminal offense to disclose a certified agenda or tape recording of a lawfully closed meeting to a member of the public. See id. § 551.146(a)-(b); see also Attorney General Opinion JM-1071 at 3 (1989) (statutory predecessor to Gov’t Code § 551.146 did not prohibit members of governmental body or other individuals in attendance at executive session from making public statements about subject matter of executive session); Open Records Decision No. 495 at 4 (1988) (attorney general lacks authority to review certified agendas or tapes of executive sessions to determine whether governmental body may withhold such information under statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.101). You inform us that Exhibit G consists of certified agendas of closed sessions of the city council. Based on your representations, we agree that the city must withhold Exhibit G under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 551.104 of the Government Code.

<sup>1</sup>As we are able to make this determination, we need not address the remaining arguments with respect to Exhibits D, E, and F.

In summary, the city may withhold Exhibits D, E, and F under section 552.104 of the Government Code. The city must withhold Exhibit G under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 551.104 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Amy L.S. Shipp
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
