Texas Department of Criminal Justice

OR2007-10489

Dear Mr. Frazier:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 286599.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for internal review information relating to a named individual. You state you have released a portion of the requested information. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by statute, including section 508.313 of the Government Code, which provides in part:

(a) All information obtained and maintained [by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice], including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

(1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;

(2) a releasee; or

(3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Gov't Code § 508.313(a); See also id. §508.001(9) (“releasee” means a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision). You state that the submitted information relates to a person who was released on parole. You state that the requestor does not represent an eligible entity that is authorized to obtain the information in question under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c)-(d).¹ You also state that none of the information is subject to chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. § 508.313(e)-(f).² Based on your representations and our review, we conclude that the department must withhold the submitted information under section 508.313 of the Government Code.³

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must appeal by filing suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such an appeal, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body ¹Section 508.313(c) provides for the release of information that is confidential under section 508.313(a) to the governor, a member of the board of pardons and paroles or a parole commissioner, the criminal justice policy council, or an eligible entity requesting information for a law enforcement, prosecutorial, correctional, clemency, or treatment purpose. Section 508.313(d) provides that “eligible entity” means a government agency, an organization with which the Department of Criminal Justice contracts or an organization to which the department provides a grant, or an organization to which inmates are referred for services by the department.

²Section 508.313(e) provides that section 508.313 does not apply to information relating to a sex offender that is authorized for release under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Section 508.313(f) provides that section 508.313 does not apply to information that is subject to required public disclosure under section 552.029 of the Government Code.

³As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.

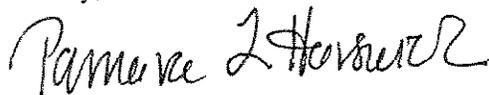

will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can appeal that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Tamara L. Harswick
