

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

GREG ABBOTT

January 30, 2008

Mr. Tom Donnelly
City Administrator
City of Hallettsville
101 North Main
Hallettsville, Texas 77964-2727

OR2008-01401

Dear Mr. Donnelly:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 300893.

The Hallettsville Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You state you have provided the requestor with some of the requested information. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. Section 58.007 of the Family Code makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. The relevant language of section 58.007(c) reads:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapter B.

Fam. Code. § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 is applicable to records that pertain to a juvenile as a suspect or offender, and not as a complainant, victim, witness, or other involved party. See id.; see also id. § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating a need for supervision” for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). Furthermore, for purposes of section 58.007, “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. See id. § 51.02(2). The submitted incident report pertains to juvenile delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. Therefore, the submitted incident report is confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code, unless one of the exceptions to disclosure in section 58.007 applies.

Section 58.007(e) of the Family Code provides that “[l]aw enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101 [of the Family Code] and a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code.” Id. § 58.007(e). Section 58.101 of the Family Code provides that “‘juvenile justice agency’ means an agency that has custody or control over juvenile offenders.” Id. § 58.101(5). Section 411.082 of the Government Code defines a “criminal justice agency” as including “a federal or state agency that is engaged in the administration of criminal justice under a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial portion of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice” and “a nongovernmental railroad or campus police department that has obtained an originating agency identifier from the Federal Bureau of Investigation.” Gov’t Code §411.082(3).

The requestor is a deputy with the Galveston County Sheriff’s Office School Liaison Program (the “sheriff’s office”) working with the Clear Creek Independent School District. You do not state, however, and we are not otherwise informed, whether the sheriff’s office is a juvenile justice agency or a criminal justice agency for purposes of section 58.007(e) of the Family Code. Nevertheless, if the department is able to determine that this particular requestor represents a juvenile justice agency or a criminal justice agency, as provided by section 58.007(e) of the Family Code, then the requestor has a right of access under section 58.007(e) to the submitted information. Otherwise, as it does not appear that any of the other exceptions in section 58.007 apply, the information is confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code and must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must file suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such a challenge, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can challenge that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,

Leah B. Wingerson
Assistant Attorney General
