

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 15, 2008

Mr. Joe Torres, III
Attorney At Law
216 North Texas Boulevard, Suite 2
Alice, Texas 78332

OR2008-05002

Dear Mr. Torres:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 308072.

The City of Alice (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for records of garnishment by the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") pertaining to five named persons. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.102 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. The submitted record consists of a tax levy form. We note that the city received this form from the IRS. Section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code makes federal tax return information confidential: See 26 U.S.C. § 6103(a). The term "return information" includes "tax liability . . . prepared by . . . or collected by the Secretary with respect to the determination of the existence, or possible existence, of liability (or the amount thereof) of any person under this title for any tax[.]" See id. § 6103(b)(2). Federal courts have construed the term "return information" expansively to include any information gathered by the IRS regarding a taxpayer's liability under title 26 of the United States Code. See Mallas v. Kolak, 721 F. Supp 748, 754 (M.D.N.C. 1989), dismissed in part, aff'd in part, vacated in part, and remanded, 993 F.2d 1111 (4th Cir. 1993). Therefore, we conclude that information pertaining to a tax levy constitutes "tax return information" as contemplated by section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code. See Johnson v. Sawyer, 120 F.3d 1307, 1330 (5th Cir. 1997) (tax return information is confidential unless disclosure is permitted by exception found in section 6103) (citing Chandler v. United States, 687 F. Supp. 1515, 1516 n.1 (C.D. Utah 1988), aff'd, 887 F.2d 1397 (10th Cir. 1989) (notice of levy disclosed tax return information)). Thus, the city must withhold the submitted tax levy form in accordance with federal law. As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For example, governmental bodies are prohibited from asking the attorney general to reconsider this ruling. Gov't Code § 552.301(f). If the governmental body wants to challenge this ruling, the governmental body must file suit in Travis County within 30 calendar days. Id. § 552.324(b). In order to get the full benefit of such a challenge, the governmental body must file suit within 10 calendar days. Id. § 552.353(b)(3), (c). If the governmental body does not appeal this ruling and the governmental body does not comply with it, then both the requestor and the attorney general have the right to file suit against the governmental body to enforce this ruling. Id. § 552.321(a).

If this ruling requires the governmental body to release all or part of the requested information, the governmental body is responsible for taking the next step. Based on the statute, the attorney general expects that, upon receiving this ruling, the governmental body will either release the public records promptly pursuant to section 552.221(a) of the Government Code or file a lawsuit challenging this ruling pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code. If the governmental body fails to do one of these things, then the requestor should report that failure to the attorney general's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. The requestor may also file a complaint with the district or county attorney. Id. § 552.3215(e).

If this ruling requires or permits the governmental body to withhold all or some of the requested information, the requestor can challenge that decision by suing the governmental body. Id. § 552.321(a); Texas Dep't of Pub. Safety v. Gilbreath, 842 S.W.2d 408, 411 (Tex. App.—Austin 1992, no writ).

Please remember that under the Act the release of information triggers certain procedures for costs and charges to the requestor. If records are released in compliance with this ruling, be sure that all charges for the information are at or below the legal amounts. Questions or complaints about over-charging must be directed to Hadassah Schloss at the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

If the governmental body, the requestor, or any other person has questions or comments about this ruling, they may contact our office. Although there is no statutory deadline for contacting us, the attorney general prefers to receive any comments within 10 calendar days of the date of this ruling.

Sincerely,
