Dear Mr. Hawk:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 327078.

The Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident report. You claim that portions of the requested information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.130, and 552.147 of the Government Code.¹ We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the common-law right of privacy, which protects information if it (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. *See Indus. The types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation included information relating to sexual assault, pregnancy, mental or physical abuse in the workplace, illegitimate children, psychiatric treatment of mental disorders, attempted suicide, and injuries to sexual organs. Id. at 683. In Open Records Decision No. 339 (1982), we concluded that a sexual assault victim has a common-law privacy interest that prevents disclosure of information that would identify the victim. The submitted information pertains to an alleged sexual assault. Accordingly, the department must withhold the alleged victim's identifying information you have marked, as well as the additional information we have marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides that information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title, or registration issued by a Texas agency is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1), (2). Accordingly, the department must withhold the Texas motor vehicle record information you have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

Section 552.147 of the Government Code states that "[t]he social security number of a living person is excepted from" required public disclosure under the Act. Id. § 552.147. Upon review, we agree that the department may withhold the social security number that you have marked under section 552.147 of the Government Code.²

In summary, the department must withhold the alleged victim's identifying information you have marked, as well as the additional information we have marked, under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. The department must withhold the Texas motor vehicle record information you have marked under section 552.130. The department may withhold the marked social security number in under section 552.147. The remaining submitted information must be released.
