

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

February 2, 2009

Ms. P. Armstrong
Assistant City Attorney
Criminal Law and Police Division
1400 South Lamar
Dallas, Texas 75215

OR2009-01308

Dear Ms. Armstrong:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 334210 (City of Dallas Open Records Request 2008-7973).

The Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for specified arrest reports for a named individual. You state that you have released some of the requested information to the requestor. You claim that portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

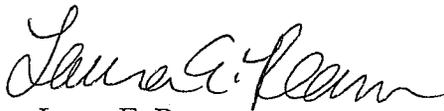

Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime." Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state that the submitted information relates to an ongoing criminal investigation and prosecution. Based upon your representation and our review, we conclude that the release of the information you have marked in the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e., 536 S.W.2d 559

(Tex. 1976) (per curiam) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). The department may, therefore, withhold the marked information in the submitted information pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We note that you have the discretion to release all or part of the marked information in the submitted information that is not otherwise confidential by law. Gov't Code § 552.007.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

Sincerely,

Laura E. Ream
Assistant Attorney General

information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was obtained.

Health & Safety Code § 773.091(b)-(c). Although you raise section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 773.091, we note that the submitted information is a city police department investigation report and not emergency medical services records. Further, you do not inform us that any of the information contained in the submitted police report was taken from emergency medical services records. Therefore, we find that none of the submitted information falls within the scope of section 773.091. Therefore, the city may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 773.091 of the Health and Safety Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the Medical Practice Act (the "MPA"), subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code. See Occ. Code § 151.001. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides, in part:

(a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient's behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Id. § 159.002(a)-(c). This office has concluded that the protection afforded by section 159.002 extends only to records created by either a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). Further, information that is subject to the MPA also includes information that was obtained from medical records. See Occ. Code. § 159.002(a), (b), (c); see also Open Records Decision No. 598 (1991). We note that section 159.001 of the MPA defines "patient" as a person who consults with or is seen by a physician to receive medical care. See Occ. Code § 159.001(3). Under this definition, a deceased person cannot be a "patient" under section 159.002 of the MPA. Thus, section 159.002 is applicable only to the medical records of a person who was alive at the time of the creation of the records. You contend that a portion of the submitted information is confidential under the MPA. In this instance, the submitted information consists of a police investigation regarding a deceased individual. You do not explain, nor can we discern from our review, how any of the submitted information was obtained from medical records for the purposes of the MPA. Thus, you have failed to demonstrate the applicability of the MPA to any of the submitted information. We therefore conclude that the city may not withhold any portion of the submitted information under section 552.101 on that basis.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information [that] relates to ... a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state [.]" Gov't Code § 552.130. We note that section 552.130 protects the privacy interest of the individual, and because the right of privacy is purely personal, it lapses upon death. Moore v. Charles B. Pierce Film Enters., Inc., 589 S.W.2d 489, 491 (Tex. App.—Texarkana 1979, writ ref'd n.r.e.); see also Attorney General Opinions JM-229 (1984), H-917 (1976); Open Records Decision No. 272 (1981). Accordingly, the department may not withhold any information pertaining to the deceased individual under section 552.130. However, the city must withhold the Texas driver's license number we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released to the requestor.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

Sincerely,

Laura E. Ream

<sup>1</sup>We note that the requestor in this instance has a special right of access to his own driver's license number, which is being released. Gov't Code § 552.023 (person or person's authorized representative has special right of access to records that contain information relating to the person that are protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person's privacy interests). Should the city receive another request for these same records from a person who would not have a special right of access to the private information, the city should resubmit this same information and request another ruling from this office. See id. §§ 552.301(a), .302.
