Mr. Fortunato Paredes

OR2009-05338

Dear Mr. Paredes:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 340563.

The United Independent School District (the "district"), which you represent, received a request for information involving the requestor and a specified time interval. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 through 552.148 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim.

Section 552.301 of the Government Code prescribes procedures that a governmental body must follow in asking this office to determine whether requested information is excepted from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a). Section 552.301(e) requires the governmental body to submit to this office, not later than the fifteenth business day after the date of its receipt of the request for information, (1) written comments in support of the governmental body's claimed exceptions to disclosure and (2) the specific information at issue or representative samples if the information is voluminous. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A), (D). You state that the district received the present request for information on January 28, 2009. As of the date of this decision, you have not submitted to this office either any written comments in support of the exceptions to disclosure the district claims or any information that the district seeks to withhold. Thus, the district has not complied with section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting this decision.

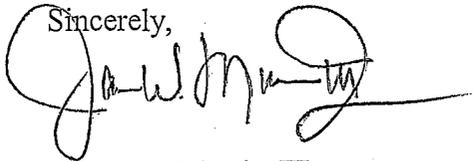

If a governmental body fails to comply with section 552.301, the requested information is presumed to be public and must be released, unless there is a compelling reason to withhold any of the information. See id. § 552.302; Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381-82 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ). This statutory presumption can generally be overcome when information is confidential by law or third-party interests are at stake. See Open Records Decision Nos. 630 at 3 (1994), 325 at 2 (1982). The district's discretionary exceptions to disclosure are not compelling reasons for non-disclosure under section 552.302. See Open Records Decision No. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally). In failing to comply with section 552.301, the district has waived all of the discretionary exceptions it claims and may not withhold any of the requested information under any of those exceptions. See Open Records Decision No. 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions). The district also claims mandatory exceptions to disclosure. See Open Records Decision No. 674 at 3 n.4 (2001) (mandatory exceptions generally). But because the district has not submitted any of the requested information to this office, we have no basis to conclude that any of the information is confidential under any mandatory exception. Thus, we have no choice but to order you to release the requested information in accordance with section 552.302 of the Government Code. If you believe the information is confidential and may not lawfully be released, you must challenge this ruling in court pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General at (512) 475-2497.

Sincerely,

James W. Morris, III
Assistant Attorney General
