Re: Request for info regarding the State of Texas v. named person, cause no. 08CR2368, cause no. 283405, for all offense or police reports, for all charges or complaints presented by named person to law enforcement authorities responsible for investigating the charges giving rise to the criminal actions

Dear Ms. Reingold:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 360653.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(2) you may withhold the submitted information. However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. Also, you must withhold the highlighted Texas driver's license numbers under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, as well as information on the rights and obligations of governmental bodies and requestors, please refer to open government information contained on the Office of the Attorney General website at www.oag.state.tx.us. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
