Ms. Natasha Brooks
Assistant City Attorney
City of Midland
P. O. Box 1152
Midland, Texas 79702-1152

OR2009-15152

Dear Ms. Brooks:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 359273.

The Midland Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the department or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a victim or witness under 18 years of age unless that victim or witness is:

(A) the child who is the subject of the report; or

(B) another child of the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative requesting the information;

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Act of April 10, 1995, 74th Leg., R.S., ch. 20, § 1, sec. 261.201, 1995 Tex. Gen. Laws 113, 262, amended by Act of June 1, 2009, 81st Leg., R.S., ch. 779, §1, 2009 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 1965, 1965-66 (Vernon) (to be codified as an amendment to Fam. Code § 261.201(a)) and Act of June 3, 2009, 81st Leg., R.S., ch. 1377, § 13, 2009 Tex. Sess. Law Serv. 4324, 4327-28 (Vernon) (to be codified at Fam. Code § 261.201(k), (l)). You state the information you have marked Exhibit B was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse. See Fam. Code § 261.001(1)(E) (definition of "child abuse" includes indecency with a child under Penal Code section 21.11); see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining "child" for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). Based on your representations and our review, we find the information you have marked Exhibit B is generally confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code. While the requestor is the parent of the child victims listed in the incident report, he is alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. Accordingly, the department must withhold Exhibit B in its entirety under section 261.201 of the Family Code in conjunction with section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Next, we address your argument under section 552.108 for the remaining information. Section 552.108(a)(2) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication[.]” A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate that the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. You state that the remaining information, which you have marked Exhibit C, pertains to a case that did not result in a conviction or a deferred adjudication. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude that section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable in this instance.

Section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976), and includes a detailed description of the offense. We note basic information described in Houston Chronicle does not include information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code. Thus, with the exception of basic information, you may withhold Exhibit C from disclosure based on section 552.108(a)(2).

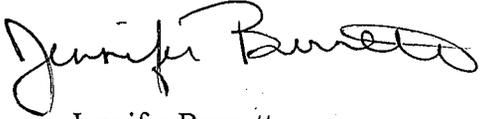

In summary, the department must withhold Exhibit B in its entirety under section 261.201 of the Family Code in conjunction with section 552.101 of the Government Code. With the exception of basic information, the department may withhold Exhibit C from disclosure based on section 552.108(a)(2).
