

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

January 11, 2010

Ms. Jennifer C. Cohen
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Public Safety
P.O. Box 4087
Austin, Texas 78773-0001

OR2010-00515

Dear Ms. Cohen:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 366884 (ORA 09-2184).

The Texas Department of Public Safety (the "department") received a request for all information related to a specified complaint. You state the department has released some of the requested information to the requestor. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, you acknowledge, and we agree, that the department failed to meet the deadlines prescribed by section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting a decision from our office. See Gov't Code § 552.301. Pursuant to section 552.302 of the Government Code, a governmental body's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption that the requested information is public and must be released unless the governmental body demonstrates a compelling reason to withhold the information from disclosure. See id. § 552.302; City of Dallas v. Abbott, 279 S.W.3d 806, 811 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2007, pet. granted); Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ); see also Open Records Decision No. 630 (1994). A compelling reason exists when third-party interests are at stake or when information is confidential under other law. See Open Records Decision Nos. 630 at 3 (1994), 325 at 2 (1982). As section 552.101 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason to overcome the presumption of openness, we will consider your argument under this section.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information other statutes make confidential. Section 411.00755 of the Government Code states in pertinent part:

(b) The personnel records of a commissioned officer of the department may not be disclosed or otherwise made available to the public, except the department shall release in accordance with Chapter 552:

(1) any letter, memorandum, or document relating to:

(B) misconduct by the officer, if the letter, memorandum, or document resulted in disciplinary action[.]

Id. § 411.00755(b). Section 411.00755 defines a personnel record, in part, as “any letter memorandum, or document maintained by the department that relates to a commissioned officer of the department[.]” Id. § 411.00755(a). For the purpose of section 411.00755, “disciplinary action” means discharge, suspension, or demotion. Id. § 411.0072(a)(1).

You claim the submitted information consists of documents related to an internal investigation that did not result in the discharge, suspension, or demotion of any department officer. Based on your representation and our review of the information at issue, we conclude the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.00755 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
