OR2010-01292

Dear Ms. Aguilar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 372990.

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident. You state the department has released some of the requested information to the requestor. You have redacted social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147 of the Government Code and Texas driver's license numbers and license plate numbers pursuant to Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009).¹ You claim that portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

¹Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a government body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Additionally, this office recently issued Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009), a previous determination to all governmental bodies, which authorizes withholding of ten categories of information, including Texas driver's license numbers and license plate numbers under section 552.130 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision.

Section 552.101 exempts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses criminal history record information ("CHRI") generated by the National Crime Information Center or by the Texas Crime Information Center. Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI that states obtain from the federal government or other states. Open Records Decision No. 565 (1990). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Id. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI that the Texas Department of Public Safety ("DPS") maintains, except that DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 411.083. Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Other entities specified in chapter 411 of the Government Code are entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS or another criminal justice agency; however, those entities may not release CHRI except as provided by chapter 411. See generally id. §§ 411.090-.127. Thus, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F. See id. § 411.082(2)(B) (term CHRI does not include driving record information). Upon review, we agree that the information you have marked consists of CHRI. Therefore, the department must withhold the marked information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code and federal law.

Next, you raise section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code for the information you have marked. Section 552.101 also encompasses section 58.007, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. The relevant language of section 58.007 reads:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007, “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2). The incident report you have marked relates to juvenile delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03(a) (defining juvenile “delinquent conduct” for the purposes of section 58.007). You do not indicate, nor does it appear, that any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply to the information at issue. Therefore, the information you have marked is confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code and must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Next, you claim that some of the remaining information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You inform us that the marked information relates to a pending criminal investigation and prosecution. Based upon your representation and our review, we find that section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the information you have marked. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). The department may, therefore, withhold the information you have marked pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.²

In summary, the department must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with chapter 411 of the Government Code and federal law. The department must also withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. The department may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.108 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

²We note that you have the discretion to release all or part of the information you marked under section 552.108 that is not otherwise confidential by law. Gov’t Code § 552.007.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
