Dear Ms. Aguilar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 376295.

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request for all information relating to two specified incident reports. You state the department has released some of the information. You claim that portions of the remaining information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as article 62.051 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Article 62.051 requires a sex offender registrant to provide the following information for the Department of Public Safety ("DPS") sex offender registration database: the person's full name; each alias; date of birth; sex; race; height; weight; eye color; hair color; social security number; driver's license number; shoe size; home address; a recent color photograph, or if possible, an electronic image of the person; a complete set of fingerprints; the type of offense the person was convicted of; the age of the victim; the date of conviction; the punishment received; an indication as to whether the person is discharged, paroled, or released on juvenile probation, community supervision, or mandatory supervision; an indication of each license, as defined by article 62.005(g), that is held or sought by the person; an indication as to whether the person is or will be employed, carrying on a vocation, or a student at a particular public or private institution of higher education in this state or another state, and the name and address of that institution; and any other information required by DPS. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 62.051(c). This information is public information with the exception of the person's social security number, driver's license number, telephone number, all information required by DPS outside of the enumerated categories of information, and any information that would identify the victim of the offense for which the person is subject to registration. See id. art.62.005(b). Upon review, we agree that the submitted information is subject to article 62.005.

We understand you to claim the fingerprint you have marked is confidential under chapter 560 of the Government Code, which is also encompassed by section 552.101. Section 560.003 provides that "[a] biometric identifier in the possession of a governmental body is exempt from disclosure under [the Act]." Gov't Code § 560.003; see id. § 560.001(1) ("biometric identifier" means retina or iris scan, fingerprint, voiceprint, or record of hand or face geometry). As previously noted, some of the requested information, including a fingerprint, is specifically made public by article 62.005(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Thus, we must address the conflict between the access provided by article 62.005(b) and the confidentiality provided under section 560.003. Where information falls within both a general and a specific provision of law, the specific provision prevails over the general. See Horizon/CMS Healthcare Corp. v. Auld, 34 S.W.3d 887, 901 (Tex. 2000) ("more specific statute controls over the more general"); Cuellar v. State, 521 S.W.2d 277 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975) (under well-established rule of statutory construction, specific statutory provisions prevail over general ones); Open Records Decision Nos. 598 (1991), 583 (1990), 451 (1986). In this instance, article 62.005(b) specifically provides access only to certain categories of information found within sex offender registration records, while section 560.003 generally excepts all biometric identifier information maintained in any context. Thus, we conclude the access to certain types of sex offender registration information provided under article 62.005(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure is more specific than the general confidentiality provided under section 560.003 of the Government Code. Consequently, the department may not withhold the submitted fingerprint under section 560.003 of the Government Code. Accordingly, the department must withhold or release the submitted information in accordance with article 62.005(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
