Assistant City Attorney
City of Waco

OR2010-07025

Dear Ms. Villarreal:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 385149 (LGL-10-542).

The Waco Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified address during a specified time period. You indicate you have released some information to the requestor. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

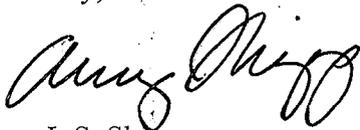

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision," and encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. Gov't Code § 552.101. You have marked a telephone number in the submitted information that you seek to withhold under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. Chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code relates to local emergency communications districts. Section 772.318 applies to an emergency 9-1-1 district established in accordance with chapter 772, and makes confidential the originating telephone numbers and addresses of 9-1-1 callers that are furnished by a service supplier. See Open Records Decision No. 649 (1996). We understand that the City of Waco is part of an emergency communication district that was established under section 772.318.¹ Based on your representations and our review, we agree most of the information you have marked must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. However, the information we have marked for release does not consist of an originating telephone number or address provided by a 9-1-1 service provider. Therefore, this information is not confidential under section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code and may not be withheld under section 552.101. This information, along with the remaining submitted information must be released to the requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Sincerely,

Amy L.S. Shipp
