Ms. Robin King
Custodian of Records
Kaufman County Sheriff's Office

Kaufman, Texas 75142

OR2010-07773

Dear Ms. King:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 387284.

The Kaufman County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for information related to a specified incident. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We also understand you to raise section 552.101 of the Government Code as an exception to disclosure. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note that the submitted information contains a court-filed document. This document is subject to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code, which provides that "information that is also contained in a public court record" is "public information and not excepted from required disclosure under this chapter unless [it is] expressly confidential under other law[.]" Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(17). Although you assert this information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code, this section is a discretionary exception within the Act and not "other law" that makes information confidential. See Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 586 (1991) (governmental body may waive section 552.108). Therefore, the sheriff may not withhold the court-filed document under section 552.108. However, because section 552.101 does constitute "other law" for purposes of section 552.022, we will address this exception for the court-filed document and for the information not subject to section 552.022.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information that is considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code. Section 58.007 provides in pertinent part as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Law enforcement records relating to juvenile conduct, whether delinquent conduct or conduct in need of supervision, that occurred on or after September 1, 1997, are confidential under section 58.007 of the Family Code. See id. § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating a need for supervision” for purposes of title 3 of the Family Code). For purposes of section 58.007, “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. See id. § 51.02(2). We note, however, that section 58.007(c) is applicable to information that relates to a juvenile as a suspect or offender, and not as a complainant, victim, witness, or other involved party. See id. § 58.007(c). Upon review, we find that the submitted information does not identify a juvenile as a suspect or offender. Therefore, we conclude you have failed to establish section 58.007(c) of the Family Code is applicable to the information at issue, and it may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

You claim the submitted information not subject to section 552.022 is excepted under section 552.108 of the Government Code. Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime [if] release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state that the information at issue relates to a pending criminal investigation. Based on this representation and our review, we conclude that the release of this information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is generally applicable to the information at issue.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Such basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-87; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the sheriff may withhold the information at issue under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

In summary, the court-filed document must be released pursuant to section 552.022 of the Government Code. With the exception of basic information, which must be released, the sheriff may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
