OR2010-08110

Dear Ms. Aguilar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 381920.

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request for the offense report related to the requestor's arrest on March 4, 2010. You state the department has released portions of the responsive report. You claim the remaining portions of the report, which you marked, are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.108 and 552.151 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime." Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted report relates to an active criminal case that is under investigation, and that release of the information you marked at this time would interfere with that case. Based on your representations and our review, we determine release of the information you marked under section 552.108 would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). Accordingly, the department may withhold the information you marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

You also raise section 552.151 of the Government Code, which provides:

Information in the custody of a governmental body that relates to an employee or officer of the governmental body is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if, under the specific circumstances pertaining to the employee or officer, disclosure of the information would subject the employee or officer to a substantial threat of physical harm.

Id. § 552.151. You inform us the information you have marked under section 552.151 relates to undercover narcotics officers. You represent release of this information would subject these undercover officers to a “substantial threat of physical harm.” Based on your representation, we conclude you have demonstrated that release of the information you have marked would subject the officers to a substantial threat of physical harm. Therefore, we conclude the department must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.151 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department may withhold the information you marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code, and must withhold the information you marked under section 552.151 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

Bob Davis
