

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 15, 2010

Ms. Julie Renken
County Attorney
Washington County
100 East Main, Suite 200
Brenham, Texas 77833

OR2010-08719

Dear Ms. Renken:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 382742.

The Washington County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for the report for case no. 2010-0004618. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.103 of the Government Code provides in part as follows:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). The purpose of section 552.103 is to protect the litigation interests of governmental bodies that are parties to the litigation at issue. See id.

§ 552.103(a); Open Records Decision No. 638 at 2 (1996) (section 552.103 only protects the litigation interests of the governmental body claiming the exception). You inform us that the submitted information pertains to a currently pending criminal case. We note that the sheriff is not a party to the criminal proceeding and, therefore, does not have a litigation interest in the matter for purposes of section 552.103. In such a situation, we require an affirmative representation from the governmental body with the litigation interest that the governmental body wants the information at issue withheld from disclosure under section 552.103. You assert that the Washington County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney") does not wish to disclose this information. You also provide correspondence from the district attorney stating that the submitted information pertains to a pending prosecution. We understand that release of the submitted information would interfere with the district attorney's prosecution of the criminal case. Based on these representations and our review, we find that litigation was pending on the date the sheriff received the request for information and that the submitted information relates to that pending litigation. Thus, the sheriff may withhold the submitted information under section 552.103 of the Government Code.

We note, however, that once information has been obtained by all parties to the pending litigation through discovery or otherwise, no section 552.103(a) interest exists with respect to that information. See Open Records Decision No. 349 at 2 (1982). We also note the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends once the litigation has concluded. Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities; please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Andrea L. Caldwell
Assistant Attorney General
