

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 15, 2010

Mr. Gregory Alicie
Baytown Police Department
3200 North Main Street
Baytown, Texas 77521

OR2010-08731

Dear Mr. Alicie:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 382770.

The Baytown Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim that portions of the requested information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.108 and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body that claims an exception to disclosure under section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why this exception is applicable to the information at issue. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation. Based upon this representation and our review, we conclude the release of the information you have marked would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). Therefore, the department may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

Section 552.147 of the Government Code states "[t]he social security number of a living person is excepted from" required public disclosure under the Act. Gov't Code § 552.147.

Upon review, we agree the department may withhold the partial social security numbers you have marked under section 552.147 of the Government Code.¹

In summary, the department may withhold the information you marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The department may withhold the partial social security numbers you have marked under section 552.147 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released to the requestor.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Adam Leiber
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

¹Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

²We note the information being released contains confidential information to which the requestor has a right of access. See Gov't Code § 552.023 (person has special right of access to information that relates to the person and that is protected from disclosure by laws intended to protect person's privacy interests). Thus, if the department receives another request for this particular information from a different requestor, then the department should again seek a decision from this office.
