OR2010-10249

Dear Ms. Lentz:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 386194.

The Williamson County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received two requests from the same requestor for: 1) information pertaining to the requestor at a specified address on a specified date, and 2) 9-1-1 calls pertaining to a family situation at a specified location. You claim the submitted records are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted records.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Department of Family and Protective Services (“DFPS”)] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k). You indicate the submitted records pertain to an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of Fam. Code ch. 261). Although the requestor is a parent of the child victim listed in the reports, the requestor is alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. Therefore, the requestor does not have a right of access under section 261.201(k). You do not indicate the sheriff has adopted a rule governing the release of this information. Accordingly, we assume no such rule exists. Given that assumption, we conclude the sheriff must withhold the submitted records under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
