Dear Ms. Sangsvang:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 387013 (FW PIR No. W000735).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.108 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime... if... release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You inform us, and have provided an affidavit from the Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's office stating, that the submitted information is related to a pending criminal prosecution. Based on your representation and the affidavit, we conclude that section 552.108(a)(1) is generally applicable to the submitted information. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.— Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases).

<sup>1</sup>You state that Texas motor vehicle record information has been redacted from the submitted documents pursuant to previous determinations issued to the city under section 552.130 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.130; Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (previous determinations). You also state you have redacted social security numbers under section 552.147 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

We note that section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Basic information includes the identity of the complainant and a detailed description of the offense. Because the submitted information relates to a sexual assault, the city would ordinarily be required to withhold the identity of the complainant from the public under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. See Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 683 (Tex. 1976); Open Records Decision Nos. 393 (1983), 339 (1982). In this instance, however, the complainant is identified in the basic information only by a pseudonym. The use of a pseudonym by the victim sufficiently protects the complainant’s privacy. Therefore, the city must release basic offense and arrest information in accordance with section 552.108(c). See ORD 127 at 3-4. The city may withhold the rest of the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
