ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

OR2010-10951

Dear Mr. Reyna:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 387606 (COSA File No. 2010-5761).

The City of San Antonio (the "city") received a request for a copy of a specified police report. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, including section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. Section 58.007(c) reads in relevant part:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Law enforcement records relating to juvenile conduct, whether delinquent conduct or conduct in need of supervision, that occurred on or after September 1, 1997, are confidential under section 58.007 of the Family Code. See id. § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating a need for supervision” for purposes of title 3 of the Family Code). For purposes of section 58.007, “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. See id. § 51.02(2). Upon review, we find the submitted report involves juveniles engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. It does not appear any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply to this report. Therefore, the submitted report is generally confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

We note, however, that the requestor is a representative of the San Antonio Housing Authority, who states the requested report is “for use in [an] eviction case.” Section 1437d(q)(1)(A) of chapter 42 of the United States Code, the federal Housing Opportunity Program Extension Act of 1996, provides that “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law . . . the National Crime Information Center, police departments, and other law enforcement agencies shall, upon request, provide information to public housing agencies regarding the criminal conviction records of adult applicants for, or tenants of, covered housing assistance for purposes of applicant screening, lease enforcement, and eviction.” 42 U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(A). Section 1437d(q)(1)(C) provides that “[a] law enforcement agency described in subparagraph (A) shall provide information under this paragraph relating to any criminal conviction of a juvenile only to the extent that the release of such information is authorized under the law of the applicable State, tribe, or locality.” Id. § 1437d(q)(1)(C). In Open Records Decision No. 655 (1997), this office concluded these federal statutes authorize local housing authorities to obtain the criminal history record information (“CHRI”) of adult and juvenile applicants and tenants. CHRI consists of “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” Gov’t Code § 411.082(2). However, the federal law limits the purposes for which a public housing authority may request CHRI. It provides, among other things, that (1) public housing agencies may receive CHRI of adult and juvenile applicants or tenants of public housing, and (2) CHRI may only be used for purposes of applicant screening, lease enforcement, and eviction. See 42 U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(A), (C); ORD 655 at 3-5. Section 1437d(q)(1)(A) states a housing authority shall be provided access to the CHRI “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law.” 42

U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(A). Based on this language, we find section 1437d(q)(1) prevails over section 261.201 of the Family Code. Cf. Equal Employment Opportunity Comm'n v. City of Orange, Texas, 905 F. Supp 381, 382 (E.D. Tex. 1995) (federal law prevails over inconsistent provision of state law). However, as previously discussed, section 1437d(q)(1)(C) allows a housing authority to obtain access to juvenile CHRI "only to the extent that the release of such information is authorized under the law of the applicable State, tribe, or locality." 42 U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(C). Juvenile justice information is confidential but may be released to "any entity to which [the Texas Department of Public Safety ("DPS")] may grant access to adult criminal records as provided by section 411.083 of the Government Code." Fam. Code § 58.106(a)(2). Section 411.083(b)(2) of the Government Code states that DPS is required to provide CHRI to a non-criminal justice agency authorized to receive CHRI pursuant to federal statute, executive order, or state statute. Gov't Code § 411.083(b)(2). Because housing authorities are authorized to obtain adult CHRI under sections 1437d(q)(1)(A) and 411.083(b)(2), they are also authorized to obtain similar information regarding juveniles. The housing authority, however, may only obtain and use juvenile information in accordance with section 1437d(q)(1)(A). See also id. § 411.084(2)(B) (stating CHRI may only be disclosed or used as authorized or directed by another statute). Thus, any CHRI of applicants or tenants of public housing that is contained within the reports marked under section 58.007 of the Family Code must be released to this requestor in accordance with section 1437d(q)(1) of chapter 42 of the United States Code and Open Records Decision No. 655. See also 24 C.F.R. § 5.903 (describing public housing authorities' access to criminal records). The remainder of the submitted report must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city must release from the submitted report the CHRI of applicants or tenants of public housing in accordance with section 1427d(q)(1) of chapter 42 of the United States Code and Open Records Decision No. 655.¹ The remaining information must be withheld under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code.
