Dear Mr. Hargrove:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 391584 (PIR No. 10-28203).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for the payments to, agreements with, and other information from January 1, 2004 to the date of the request regarding specified persons and entities. The OAG released some information argues the remainder is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the OAG's claimed exception and have reviewed the submitted sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). The OAG explains the information at issue is developed and used in child abuse investigations and prosecutions. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201). Thus, we find the requested information is confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code, and the OAG must withhold the information.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
