OR2010-12356

Dear Mr. Mu:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 390695.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a named former inmate. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.134 relates to information about inmates of the department and provides in relevant part:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029, information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from the requirements of Section 552.021 if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). You state the submitted information consists of information about department inmates. You also state the exceptions in section 552.029 are not applicable in this instance. Based on your representations and our review, we agree section 552.134 of the Government Code is applicable to the submitted information. We note the requestor represents the inmate who is the subject of the request. Section 552.023 of the Government Code gives a person or that person's authorized representative a "special right of access, beyond the right of the general public, to information held by a governmental body that relates to the person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person's privacy interests." Id. § 552.023. However, section 552.134 not only protects the inmate's privacy interest, but also protects the interests of the governmental body. As such, the requestor does not have a special right of access to this information under section 552.023. See id. § 552.023(b) (governmental body may assert provisions of Act or other law that are not intended to protect person's privacy interests to withhold information to which requestor may otherwise have a special right of access). Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Nneka Kanu
Assistant Attorney General
