Ms. Yvette Aguilar
Assistant City Attorney
City of Corpus
P.O. Box 9277
Corpus Christi, Texas 78469-9277

OR2010-12433

Dear Ms. Aguilar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 390939.

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received a request from an investigator with the Texas Education Agency (the "TEA") for information pertaining to a named individual and specified incident. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). You state the submitted information consists of a report of alleged or suspected child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as a person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). You have not indicated the department has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information. Therefore, we assume that no such regulation exists. Given that assumption, we conclude the submitted information is generally confidential under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (construing statutory predecessor to section 261.201). Section 261.201(a) provides, however, that information encompassed by subsection (a) may be disclosed “for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law[.]” Fam. Code § 261.201(a).

We note section 22.082 of the Education Code constitutes “applicable state law” in this instance. Section 22.082 of the Education Code provides the TEA “may obtain from any law enforcement or criminal justice agency all criminal history record information [(“CHRI”)] and all records contained in any closed criminal investigation file that relate to a specific applicant for or holder of a certificate issued under Subchapter B, Chapter 21.” Educ. Code § 22.082. CHRI is defined as “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” Gov’t Code § 411.082(2); see also id. §§ 411.0901 (TEA entitled to obtain CHRI from Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) about a person who is employed or is an applicant for employment by a school district), .087(a)(2) (agency entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS also authorized to “obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state criminal history record information maintained by that [agency]”); cf. Brookshire v. Houston Indep. Sch. Dist., 508 S.W.2d 675, 678-79 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1974, no writ) (when legislature defines term in one statute and uses same term in relation to same subject matter in latter statute, later use of term is same as previously defined).

In this instance, the requestor is an investigator with the TEA, which has assumed the duties of the State Board for Educator Certification (“SBEC”).¹ The requestor states the TEA is conducting an investigation of an individual who has applied for or currently holds educator credentials. The requestor seeks access to information relating to a specific case that involves the named individual. Accordingly, the requestor has a right of access under section 22.082 of the Education Code to CHRI regarding the named individual or all records contained in a closed criminal investigation file involving the individual. You state the submitted information pertains to a pending criminal investigation. Consequently, if the department determines release of the CHRI is consistent with the Family Code, then the department must only release information from the submitted documents to this requestor that shows the type of allegations made and whether there was an arrest, information, indictment, detention, conviction, or other formal charges and their dispositions.² See Open Records Decision Nos. 623 at 3 (1994) (exceptions in the Act generally inapplicable to information that statutes expressly make public), 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under statutory predecessor to Act). In that instance, the department must withhold the remainder of the submitted information pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. If, however, the department determines release is not consistent with purposes of the Family Code, the department must withhold the submitted information in its entirety pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. See Attorney General Opinions DM-353 at 4 n.6 (1995) (finding interagency transfer of information prohibited where confidentiality statute enumerates specific entities to which release of information is authorized and where potential receiving governmental body is not among statute's enumerated entities), JM-590 at 4-5 (1986); Fam. Code § 261.201(b)-(g) (listing entities authorized to receive section 261.201 information). As our ruling in either instance would be dispositive of your remaining claim, we need not address it.

¹The 79th Texas legislature passed House Bill 1116, which required the transfer of SBEC’s administrative functions and services to the TEA, effective September 1, 2005.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Christina Alvarado
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

²We note because the requestor has a special right of access to this information in this instance, the department must again seek a decision from this office if it receives another request for the same information from another requestor.
