Dear Ms. Benton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 397346 (Waco Reference # LGL-10-1066).

The Waco Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified automobile accident. You state the department has redacted social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147 of the Government Code.¹ You indicate that the department will release some of the requested information. You claim that portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision," and encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. Gov't Code § 552.101. You have highlighted a telephone number in the submitted CAD record that you seek to withhold under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. Chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code relates to local emergency communications districts. Section 772.318 applies to an emergency 9-1-1 district established in accordance with chapter 772, and makes confidential the originating telephone numbers and addresses of 9-1-1 callers that are furnished by a service supplier. See Open Records Decision No. 649 (1996). You inform us that the City of Waco is part of an emergency communication district that was established under section 772.318.² Provided that the information you have highlighted and the additional information we have marked consist of an originating telephone number and an originating address furnished by a 9-1-1 service supplier, we conclude the department must withhold that information under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code.

Next, you claim the information you have highlighted is excepted under section 552.108 of the Government Code. Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime [if] release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state that the information you have highlighted relates to a pending criminal investigation. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude that the release of the information at issue would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). The department may, therefore, withhold the information you have highlighted under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.³

Section 552.130 excepts from public disclosure information that relates to a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit issued by an agency of this state. Gov’t Code § 552.130(a)(1). Upon review, we find the department must withhold Texas driver’s license number you have highlighted under section 552.130 of the Government Code.⁴

In summary, provided that the information you have highlighted and the additional information we have marked consist of an originating telephone number and an originating ²Section 772.318 applies to an emergency communication district for a county with a population of more than 20,000.

³We note that you have the discretion to release all or part of the information you marked under section 552.108 that is not otherwise confidential by law. Gov’t Code § 552.007.

⁴This office recently issued Open Records Decision No. 684, a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing them to withhold ten categories of information, including Texas driver’s license numbers under section 552.130 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision.

address furnished by a 9-1-1 service supplier, the department must withhold that information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. The department may withhold the information you have highlighted under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The department must withhold the Texas driver's license number you have highlighted under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
