Dear Mr. Moore:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 393558 (SO-10-060).

The Texas A&M University System (the "system") received a request for the list of bidders, evaluation sheets, winning bid package, and contract with J.T. Vaughn Construction Company, Inc. ("Vaughn") pertaining to the Emerging Technologies & Economic Development Interdisciplinary Building construction, bid 2-2991. You state the system will provide the requested list of bidders, evaluation sheets, and contract to the requestor. Although you state the system takes no position with respect to the public availability of Vaughn's submitted bid proposal, you state its release may implicate Vaughn's proprietary interests. Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, the system notified Vaughn of the request and of the company's right to submit arguments to this office as to why the submitted information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (determining statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain the applicability of exception to disclose under Act in certain circumstances). We have reviewed the submitted information.

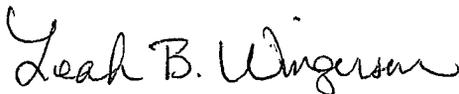

An interested third party is allowed ten business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305(d) to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should be withheld from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this letter, we have not received comments from Vaughn explaining why its submitted bid proposal should not be released. Therefore, we have no basis to conclude Vaughn has protected proprietary interests in this information. See id. § 552.110; Open Records Decision Nos. 661 at 5-6 (1999) (to prevent disclosure of commercial or financial information, party must show by specific factual evidence, not conclusory or generalized allegations, that release of requested information would cause that party substantial competitive harm), 552 at 5 (1990) (party must establish prima facie case that information is trade secret), 542 at 3. Consequently, the system may not withhold any of the submitted information on the basis of any proprietary interests Vaughn may have in the information. As no exceptions to disclosure have been claimed, the submitted information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Leah B. Wingerson
Assistant Attorney General
