Dear Ms. Fleming:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 396883.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for the video tape of a specified incident, audio record of the disciplinary court hearing, information pertaining to the pre-hearing detention, and investigation worksheet for a specified disciplinary hearing. You state the department has released or will release some information to the requestor. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.134(a) of the Government Code relates to inmates and former inmates of the department and provides in relevant part the following:

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). Section 552.134 is explicitly made subject to section 552.029, which provides in relevant part:

Notwithstanding Section 508.313 or 552.134, the following information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the [department] is subject to required disclosure under Section 552.021:

(8) basic information regarding the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, or an alleged crime involving the inmate.

Id. § 552.029(8). The submitted information relates to an alleged crime involving an inmate in custody. Thus, basic information about this incident must be released pursuant to section 552.029. Id. For purposes of section 552.029(8), basic information includes the time and place of the incident, the names of inmates and of department employees who were involved, a brief narrative of the incident, a brief description of any injuries sustained by anyone involved, and information regarding any criminal charges or disciplinary actions that were filed as a result of the incident. Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.134.
