

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 22, 2010

Mr. Steven M. Kean
Deputy City Attorney
City of Tyler
P.O. Box 2039
Tyler, Texas 75710

OR2010-16062

Dear Mr. Kean:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 400680 (UGC-212878).

The Tyler Code Enforcement Department (the "department") received a request for all complaints pertaining to a specified property. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. You state most of the information shall be released to the requestor. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by the informer's privilege, which has long been recognized by Texas courts. See Aguilar v. State, 444 S.W.2d 935, 937 (Tex. Crim. App. 1969); Hawthorne v. State, 10 S.W.2d 724, 725 (Tex. Crim. App. 1928). The informer's privilege protects the identities of individuals who report violations of statutes to the police or similar law-enforcement agencies, as well as those who report violations of statutes with civil or criminal penalties to "administrative officials having a duty of inspection or of law enforcement within their particular spheres." Open Records Decision No. 279 at 1-2 (1981). However, the informer's privilege does not apply where the informant's identity is known to the individual who is the subject of the complaint. See Open Records Decision No. 208 at 1-2 (1978). The informer's privilege protects the content of the communication only to the extent that it identifies the informant. See Open Records Decision No. 549 at 5 (1990).

You state the submitted information is related to complaints of alleged violations of section 18-20 of the Tyler City Code. You explain, under subsection 18-20.h. of the Tyler City Code, employees of the Code Enforcement Department have authority to enforce the provisions of Chapter 18, Article II. You indicate the complainants reported the violations to the city departments responsible for enforcing these ordinances. You state there are criminal penalties for violations of these ordinances under section 1-4 of the Tyler City Code. Based on your representations and our review of the submitted information, we conclude the department may withhold some of the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the informer's privilege. However, the requestor's comments indicate the subject of the complaint knows the identity of one of the complainants; therefore, the identity of that complainant may not be withheld on the basis of the informer's privilege. See Open Records Decision No. 208 at 1-2 (1978). We have marked the information that may be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the informer's privilege. The remaining information must be released to the requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Sean Nottingham
Assistant Attorney General
